20 Million Illegal Aliens May Gain "Amnesty"

The Thunderbolt

Voice Of The White American Worker

Issue No. 289 June 1983

Patriots Alert:
Disastrous Immigration Bill Passes Senate
Now Before House

Amnesty for untold millions of colored illegal aliens was a part of the immigration bill adopted by the Senate last month. The vote was 76 to 18 for the bill which could alter the racial makeup of America from a predominantly White nation to one with a colored majority within the lifetime of our children. Patriot Sen. Jesse Helms charged, "Amnesty will establish a dangerous precedent which could encourage additional illegal immigration." In other words, how long will it be before the liberal bleeding hearts in Washington call for a second round of amnesty grants for illegal aliens?

The bill will allow all who entered America illegally before Jan. 1, 1980 the right to remain, hold jobs, receive all available welfare benefits, then become citizens and voters. Illegals are now entering the nation at the rate of over 1 million a year hoping to come under the coverage of the bill. Bleeding heart social workers will administer the program and all the illegals have to do is present rent receipts and bills paid to "prove" they were here before Jan. 1, 1980. These are easily obtainable documents with little forgery necessary and sympathetic do-gooders can be expected to quickly approve their applications under the amnesty provisions.

U.S. Border Patrol captures 100,000 illegal aliens a month but double that amount successfully enter.

Even Immigration Protections Weakened

Such selfish money hungry lobbies as the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and American Bar Assn. fought to lessen penalties against those who hire illegal colored aliens. The bill provides only light fines for employers who hire illegals but even this was watered down in the bill to state it must first be proven businessmen have a history of hiring illegals.

Right now the Immigration Service can raid any factory or farm to round up and deport illegals. This new bill requires a search warrant before there can be any immigration raids! Since many thousands of restaurants, hotels / motels, service-oriented jobs, sweat labor garment shops, are the chief employers it will be impossible for search warrants to be obtained for so many raids. The greedy Chamber of Commerce has gutted the original intent of the law!

The American Bar Assn. insisted that each and every illegal alien be allowed to remain and work in America while he appeals his case on an individual basis. The bill as originally written provided for the immediate deportation of easily recognized illegals after a brief hearing before an administrative immigration magistrate. The Bar Assn. apparently seeks to flood the already over-crowded courts with hundreds of thousands of new legal cases. This means more legal fees for thousands of lawyers in a nation which has an excess of lawyers who are out ambulance chasing for any kind of case they can find. In other words, any illegal alien who has enough money to hire a lawyer (and that does not cost much these days) can safely remain in America indefinitely.

Sen. Alan Simpson, chief sponsor of the bill says: "We have put more protections in this bill to avoid employment discrimination than in any other immigration bill that's ever been proposed. Amnesty is not a reward for illegal aliens who have violated our laws but a practical solution to a very critical serious problem." THE BILL HAS BECOME SO COMPROMISED THAT IT IS FAR

Reconstruction Returns To Ala.

Alabama's Lt. Gov. Bill Baxley Welcomes Jesse Jackson

It was a disgrace the likes of which Montgomery, Ala. has never seen since the days of the Reconstruction when a black majority ruled the legislature. Chicago's Rev. Jesse Jackson, head of PUSH was to be the first black to address this body since Reconstruction.

These hallowed grounds are known as the "Cradle of the Confederacy" because here Jefferson Davis took the oath of office as President of the Confederacy. Jackson insulted White people and many legislators withheld applause when he said, "On Feb. 6, 1861, in this very chamber, the Confederacy was formed. It united the South and led to a war that divided the nation and races. On this historic day these barriers have come down."

Black supporters of Jackson packed the hall and cried "amen" and "right-on". Jackson added: "Let us rise from the guttermost to the uttermost and from the disgrace to the amazing grace." All of which was a slap in the face of all White people because this black self - annointed "black messiah" says he will raise the White people from our present disgrace in the gutter.

Actually he should have addressed his words to Lt. Gov. Bill Baxley who framed such renowned patriots Attorney J.B. Stoner and Bob Chambliss to obtain his present office. Alabama is without a doubt in the hands of evil and debased men today. The Thunderbolt has documented the fact that Baxley is a hired lackey of New Orleans mobster Carlos Marcellos. He "loaned" Baxley hundreds of thousands of dollars to work for Mier Lansky's Jewish Mafia gang. The New York Times of May 24 remarks that Baxley "warmly" introduced Jackson for his 33 minute speech. He boasted his goal is to register two million black voters to elect a race-mixer as President and rid the South of "Boll Weevils" (meaning conservative Democrats). Jackson proclaimed that "Our destiny is locked in getting these millions of blacks on the voter registration books by 1984."

Turncoat Lt. Gov. Bill Baxley applauds Jesse Jackson before speech. Jackson once bragged that while working as a waiter in Greenville, S.C., he would spit in food to be served White people to express his hatred. Note the plaque in photo stating, "In this Hall the ordinance of secession which withdrew Alabama from the Union of Sovereign states was passed Jan. 11, 1861." The scalawag Baxley has dishonored the history of his state and all its White citizens.

There can be little doubt the destiny of the White people of America rests on our ability to have millions of new Whites added to the voter registration rolls. How many Whites do you know who are not registered to vote? We all have friends and relatives who are not registered to vote. Let the Presidential drive of Rev. Jesse Jackson be the alarm which awakens our people to the danger of black power rule. Many of our major cities are now in the midst of rapid decay because of inept black mayors and the continuing lowering of such standards will lead to destruction. White people wake up, register to vote, find loyal White leaders to vote for. Let us retake our nation for the benefit of White people.

House Can Stop Amnesty

Defeat Immigration Bill In House

Every American citizen should immediately obtain a list of all the Congressmen from your state. Write them urging all to vote against the immigration bill known as "H.R. 1510." Tell them that amnesty should never be allowed because it will be rewarding law breakers by making citizens out of them. Remember that most Congressmen have political ambitions to run for higher office and they are concerned about the views of all the voters in their state. You can obtain a list of your congressmen from the lobby by phoning the local library or your newspaper.

It should be kept in mind that the Amnesty Immigration bill was defeated in the House last year. Keep your letter of protest to one side of a regular sheet of stationery. Bear in mind that short letters which are right to the point are most often read.

Amnesty Loopholes

Arguments against amnesty is that over 1 million illegal aliens enter America each year. They will arrive even faster if this bill is adopted and will seek to forge papers proving they were here earlier. Kentucky Rep. Romanzo Mazzoli sponsors the House version of the bill and it would grant citizenship to those who arrived here as late as Jan. 1982 which is even more outrageous.

Tell your Congressmen that welfare alone to the families of illegal aliens will hasten the bankruptcy of America. Under the Senate passed bill, they will immediately be entitled to full welfare benefits including free medical care, housing, food stamps, child care programs, public schooling and free school lunch programs, SSI social security benefits, unemployment benefits and outright welfare. THIS MEANS LESS FOR POOR AMERICANS, SENIOR CITIZENS AND THE HANDICAPPED!

Sen. Jesse Helms — America's greatest U. S. Senator.

Write Congress Today

This Amnesty Immigration bill can be stopped in the House and you and fellow Patriots must act quickly to block this measure. The entire bill is far worse than what we have now. Illegal immigration can quickly be halted by simply sending the U.S. Army to guard our border with Mexico. India has their army on the border of Bangladesh and Mexico has its army on its southern border to keep out people from El Salvador and Guatemala — why can't we do the same thing? After all, what is more important than protecting the nations borders from hordes of alien invaders who are bent on the destruction of our very civilization. Flood our Congressmen with letters of protest now!

Senate Sold Out

How Senate Voted On Vital Helms Amendments

North Carolina's Sen. Jesse Helms is without a doubt the greatest Senator in America today bar none. He has led the fight on every right-wing Patriotic measure to come up in the Senate ever since he first took office. For this reason Marxists nationwide are working day and night raising money and planning slanderous campaigns of lies to defeat this great leader in next year's election.

Sen. Jesse Helms offered two extremely important amendments to the immigration bills which could well mean the difference between the continuance of our civilization or its deathknell. On May 17 he offered an amendment to allow the states the right to decide whether or not free public education and welfare should be paid out of state taxpayers funds to illegal aliens. The vote was 60 against and 34 for granting STATES RIGHTS to allow the states the right to decide.

Most important of all was the Helms amendment to eliminate the amnesty provisions from the bill altogether. This was defeated by a 76 to 21 vote. PLEASE STUDY THE LIST OF THESE SENATORS SO THAT YOU WILL KNOW WHO VOTED TO PUT AMERICA FIRST AND WHO VOTED FOR THE EVENTUAL DESTRUCTION OF THE AMERICAN CIVILIZATION!

Phony "Conservatives" Voted for Amnesty

Georgia's two Senators sold-out by voting against Helms amendment to delete amnesty from the immigration bill. Note that Sen. Sam Nunn and Sen. Mack Mattingly voted for amnesty. The biggest shock of all is to read that Sen. Strom Thurmond voted for amnesty and against the right of the states to refuse welfare to illegal aliens. Democratic candidates Cranston, Glenn, and Hart voted against both Helms amendments also. Sen. Hollings missed both of the extremely important votes as he does most other legislative matters. Hollings is too busy running for President than representing the people.

WORSE THAN ANYTHING WE NOW HAVE ON THE BOOKS.

The Immigration Bill now goes to the House and is called "H.R. 1510." This bill must be defeated. It is estimated that between 15 and 20 million colored illegal aliens will become voting citizens and welfare parasites if this bill is passed. This bill amounts to HIGH TREASON and the actual continual existence of America as a united nation is at stake. European nations which have been strong in the past is because they were made up of one national White racial group — the English, Germans, Poles, French, etc. Today America is being divided and polarized and undermined. Blacks against Whites, Hispanics against both Blacks and Whites, Asians forming tight knit isolated self-interest communities and the Jews seeking to impose their will upon every group. WE ARE RAPIDLY BECOMING THE DISUNITED STATES OF AMERICA!

History shows that strong nations have always been homogeneous countries. Where the people were of the same race, nationality and religion, they were united against all foes and assumed world leadership. That is why the Japanese and Germans, while tiny nations, are the two world's strongest. The break-up of the United States witnesses South Florida becoming "North Cuba," while Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and California are becoming "North Mexico." New York, Conn. and Mass. have become "Little Israel." Are large cities with their incompetent negro leadership becoming "American Africa?" We are witnessing the decline and fall of the United States of America and it is coming about more rapidly than anyone ever dreamed possible. THE NEW SENATE PASSED IMMIGRATION BILL MAY WELL MAKE THE AMERICAN CIVILIZATION THE SHORTEST LIVED CIVILIZATION IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD!

Helms Amendment: Immigration Reform

On May 17 the Senate resumed consideration of S. 529, the "Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1983." Senator Jesse Helms (R.-N.C.) offered an amendment giving states freedom to decide whether or not to provide free public education and other benefits to illegal aliens. Last summer, the Supreme Court ruled that states must provide such aid in the absence of an explicit federal policy to the contrary. (See HUMAN EVENTS, June 26, 1982, page 4.) A "yes" vote is a vote for the Helms measure, defeated by a 60–34 margin:

Immigration Bill: Helms Amendment

During the May 17, 1983, debate on S. 529, the "Immigration Reform and Control Act," Sen. Jesse Helms (R.-N.C.) offered an amendment to strike the section of the bill granting amnesty to illegal aliens. Helms said there are as many as 15 million illegals now in this country who would benefit from the legalization provision.

Despite what many regard as the fundamental soundness of his proposal, the Helms measure was defeated by a 76–21 margin. A "yes" vote is a vote for the Helms amendment:

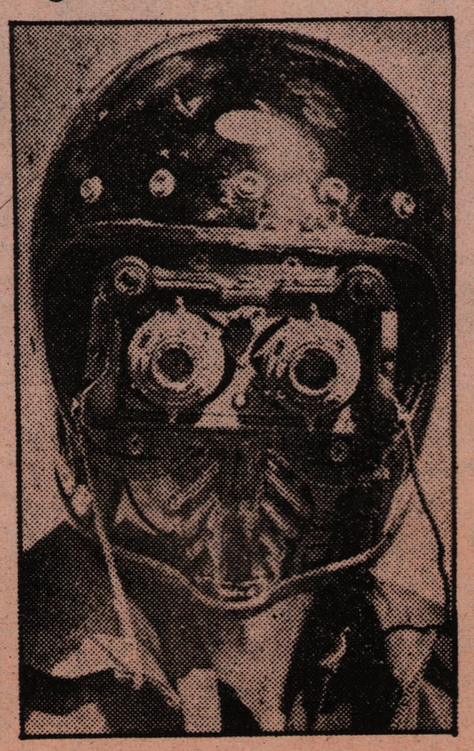
U.S. Army Should Guard Mexican Border

Mobs of Mexicans who have crawled over or under disgracefully broken down U.S. border fence in background, await night for dash into San Diego.

Two Million Mexicans Will Invade U.S. This Year

Unemployed Americans are hurt more by the influx of illegal aliens than they are by job layoffs. The U.S. Border Patrol estimates that two million illegal aliens from Mexico alone will cross into our land during 1983 alone. It is estimated that there are presently from 12 million to 20 million illegal aliens here right now.



An astronaut? A man from Mars? No — this special border patrolman's goggles allow him to see in the dark.

The Deputy Chief agent in charge of the Border Patrol in the San Diego area says, "Many believe these people are coming here to do agricultural work. That's not the case any more. They're getting into factories, service jobs, year-round work. They are not taking jobs Americans don't want — they are taking and holding down well-paying jobs. Employers will hire them at wages that are extremely low by American standards, but high by Mexican standards."

Many border patrolmen believe that employers who hire illegal aliens should face prosecution. It should be remembered that of the two million Mexicans who come here this year at least one-third shall remain and work to bring in their relatives.

National Disgrace — Only 300 Men Guard Our Border

The U. S. Border Patrol has only 300 agents guarding the border at any one time. This is because out of their 2,300 agents many are at desk jobs, on rotating shifts, or on vacations. Their budget is a mere $111 million a year. Thus our border, with its broken-down fences, is a farce.

During January alone 83,811 aliens were caught along the Mexican border. In February this jumped to 110,000 and in one day 2,442 were caught in the San Diego area alone. Some 40% of all illegal aliens enter America at this point. With infrared goggles border officers see them gather after dark along the border. Then, in groups of 10 to 20 they rush at once for the gaping holes in the border fence. A stronger barbed wire fence was proposed during the Carter Administration but vetoed when someone said "the poor illegals might injure themselves climbing over the fence."

Mexico Bankruptcy Boosts Flood

Mexico is a bankrupt nation with an inflation rate of 100% and 40% of its population unemployed. Within 10 years its population has skyrocketed from 54 million to 74 million today. Mexico has one of the highest birth rates in the world and by the year 2,000 their population will reach an astonishing 100 million people — Most of whom will want to move to the U.S.

Unless action is taken quickly, America will be overrun and destroyed by these hordes of backward peoples. Laws must be adopted making it a crime to hire illegal aliens and the border reinforced by the U.S. Army if necessary to keep the illegal aliens out. Remember, the Baltimore police dept. has more officers than the Border Patrol has on duty at any one time.

Just a few years ago, the peso was worth 12 to the dollar. Today it is 150 to the dollar. Mexico has collapsed and its impoverished population must be stopped from moving here. Otherwise this will become their country and it will crash into the nightmarish hell which has engulfed Mexico today. Halting the floodtide of illegal aliens is the most important issue facing Americans. Unless they are stopped, this will become their country and we will find ourselves enslaved by a minority which has overnight become the majority.

Aliens Deplete Social Security

Aliens and Dead Drain Social Security

There should absolutely be no cuts in Social Security benefits — in fact, payments should be increased. Two recent investigations show billions can be saved. The General Accounting Office reports $2.4 billion in Social Security benefits were paid to illegal aliens last year. Some 313,000 worked in the U.S. just long enough to qualify and then moved back to their native homeland. Their checks are mailed to them.

Social Security lost over $1 billion in payments to deceased persons last year. The problem occurs in two ways. Death benefits are not applied for and relatives keep cashing checks as they arrive. Another loss is from automatic transfer of S.S. checks to joint banking accounts. After a death the surviving relative continues to receive automatic payments in the joint checking account and write their own personal checks on continuing income. It is almost impossible to recover such losses because of the cost of legal actions.

SSI payments to illegal aliens and payments to elderly parents of newly arrived legal aliens (especially from India) is a great problem and a tremendous drain on the Social Security program. If all these loopholes could be plugged the program could quickly be made solvent again.

Of world's four billion population, one billion live in China and one billion live in India. All would like to move here.

Border Patrol Out of Gas

The Reagan Budget cuts have hit the U.S. Border Patrol. At a time when we should have the U.S. Army helping keep Mexicans out of American the Border Patrol has its gas allocations cut again (they were cut last year also!) Trial spotters have been stopped and vehicular operations can respond "only when large groups of Mexians are spotted crossing the border." In other words small groups are O.K. In San Diego officers are now only allowed to drive 7 miles a day.

Health Care For Illegals?

Arizona has a state law which limits free health care to resident citizens only. The State Attorney General, Bob Corbin, has ruled such health care service must now be provided to illegal aliens. (Note Arizona readers: Here is a man who richly deserves to be voted out of office.)

India Fights Illegal Aliens

India Deports Illegal Aliens

India's northeast state of Assam has been flooded with low cast undesirables from Bangladesh. The population is made up of 12 million Indians, nearly 1 million Nepalis and 4 million illegal aliens from Bangladesh. The people of Assam are primarily Hindu and the illegal aliens are largely Moslem. The All-Assam Students Union, headed by Prafulla Mahanta, 28, is leading a campaign demanding the deportation of the aliens. He said they have formed political groups and will eventually vote themselves into power if action is not taken. Mahanta says violence will occur unless the government acts. They warn the Assam people will be "overwhelmed" by the immigrant tide if the hordes crossing the border en masse from poverty stricken Bangladesh are not stopped.

IF INDIA CAN DEPORT ILLEGAL ALIENS TO PRESERVE CONTROL BY THEIR OWN COUNTRY WHY CAN'T AMERICA DEPORT THE MILLIONS OF MEXICAN ILLEGALS BACK TO THEIR HOMELAND? ONLY SUCH ACTION CAN SAVE THIS NATION!

No "Gas Chambers" Were Ever Found

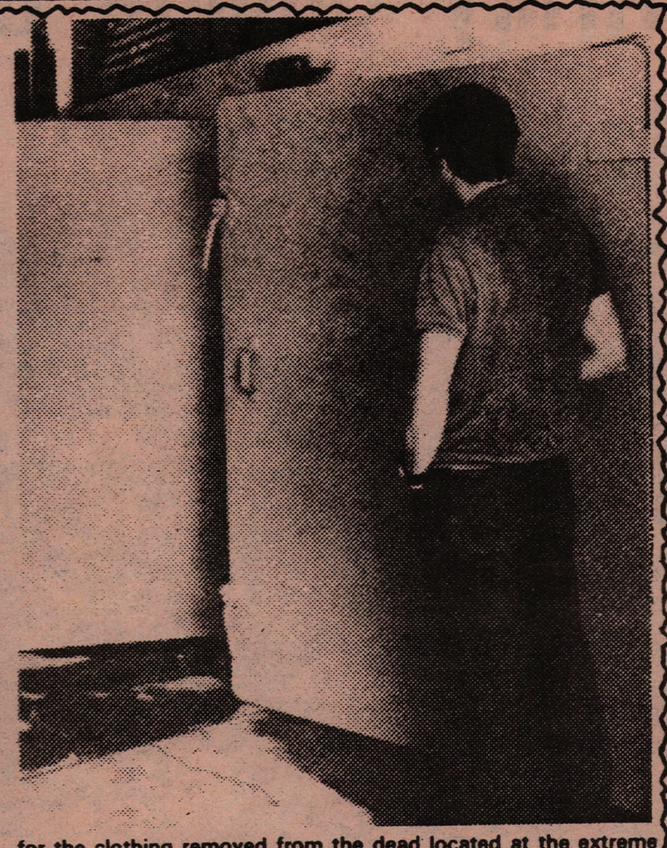
More Proof There Was No Holocaust

The Institute for Historical Review in Torrance, Calif. offered a $50,000 reward to anyone who could prove there was any planned extermination of Jews during World War II. They report only three people applied for the reward but none were able to come up with any real evidence at all. The reward period has ended and the fact still stands that no one has ever been able to find one single "gas chamber" in which Jews were supposed to have been massacred by the millions.

In fact, holocaust advocates now say there were no extermination camps in Germany at all — only concentration (detention) camps. They now claim that all the death camps were in communist Poland and we must take the Reds' word for it that such events occurred. On this page is a photo made in Dachau which for a long time was held as "proof" there was a holocaust. Now the well known responsible military history journal, "After The Battle," admits it was only a decontamination room for clothing.

It should also be remembered that the world Jewish population greatly increased from 1939 to 1946. Not only that but still living today, nearly 40 years after the war, there are still some 250,000 (quarter of a million) Jew holocaust survivors. Think of the several million so-called survivors who would have died natural deaths over the past 40 years? Remember, many of these Jews were elderly during the war and most of the young fled to Russia, America, Canada, Britain and other countries.

Thus, with the Germans being the most efficient people in the world, it would have been impossible and ridiculous to even presume there could have been any "planned extermination" of Jews because they would not have missed such huge numbers of survivors. Remember, one small city, Skokie, Ill., brags they have 7,000 survivors and in a San Francisco neighborhood Jewish leaders claim they have 12,000 survivors. The truth according to factual historians is that no more than 300,000 Jews died during the war. Most passed away from typhus epidemics which swept Germany at the end of the war and starvation as there was little food for anyone. Below is a list of well-known people with either personal or investigative experience who have joined the growing number of learned persons to publicly declare to the world that there was never any planned extermination of Jews by the Germans.



Above left: Although this picture, taken on April 30 by T/4 Sidney Blau, is captioned as the gas chambers being examined by a Seventh Army soldier, they are in fact the decontamination rooms for the clothing removed from the dead located at the extreme western end of the crematorium building (on the left in the photo on opposite page). Above right: The same door today.

The above photographs and caption are not taken from some 'neo-Nazi extremist' publication, but from issue No. 27 (1980) of the military history journal After the Battle. It illustrates an article about Dachau by the anti-Nazi journalist and historian Andrew Mollo. We ask: Why was the room photographed originally described as a "Gas Chamber" (for killing people*) and why was the door later painted over?*

Jewish writer Josef Ginsburg who lived in concentration camps denies there was any holocaust. He has been severely attacked and beaten by fellow Jews over these statements.

Jewish writer Dr. Alfred Lilienthal, former U. S. State Dept. official, writes that there was no holocaust and that the Diary of Anne Frank is a forgery. (The diary was written with a ballpoint pen which was not invented until after W.W. II.)

French Resistance hero Prof. Paul Rassinierk was a former inmate of Buchenwald and a Socialist Party Deputy in the French Parliament. He was the first academic to write a scholarly work proving there was no holocaust.

Jehovah's Witness Ditlieb Felderer was sent to research Hitler's treatment of his co-religionists and discovered there was never any holocaust of Jews!

Civil Rights lawyer John Bennett, a former Australian Labor Party leader, has published material from his own study proving there was never any holocaust.

Historical Documents expert Dr. Robert Faurisson of the University of Lyon, France, has written and lectured extensively that there was no holocaust.

Northwestern University of Illinois Prof. Arthur Butz wrote the most massive book yet debunking the holocaust entitled "The Hoax of the 20th Century."

JDL Protests

Serge Kowalchuk, the Philadelphia tailor often accused by the Jewish Defense League (JDL) of having murdered Jews during World War II was not home last week when the league staged one its frequent rallies at his house in the city's East Oak Lane section.

But a nephew and two friends made the mistake of stopping by.

According to police, the friends were beaten by two members of the militant group.

Ed Ramov, executive director of the Philadelphia chapter of JDL said that he was surprised to hear of the attack, but he understood how it could have happened.

According to Ramov, Kowalchuk's neighbors had been "openly hostile, shouting things like 'Jews kill people, too' and 'Jews killed Christ.'

The incident followed ceremonies commemorating Holocaust Day, along the Benjamin Franklin parkway in center city.

'...the U.S. and..Soviet Union cooperation on war criminals

JERUSALEM — Representatives of the U.S. and the Soviet Union are improving their cooperation in at least one area — tracking down and prosecuting suspected Nazi war criminals now living in the U.S.

The U.S. Justice Department's two top Nazi hunters, Walter Rockler and Alan Ryan, came to Israel following a visit to Russia where they discussed, among other questions, the problem of taking the testimony of Russian witnesses in a form acceptable to an American court.

The arrangements concluded with the Russian officials include depositions in the presence of defense counsel and the possibility of videotaping the session.

During their five-day visit to Israel, the two men visited Yad Vashem and met with its directors. They also had sessions with the police inspector-general and the head of the Nazi war criminal section in the police.

Justice Dept.'s OSI Unit Frames East Europeans. Federenko Ordered Deported

It should be noted that the original trial judge in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., in 1977, found Federenko innocent. He said false testimony was given against him. The un-Justice Dept. appealed and a higher court reversed the local judge's decision. Actually once a citizen is found innocent of anything the government should not have the right to appeal — this is clearly an anti-democratic action.

Greenlawn, L.I., N.Y., Karl Linnas, 70, has lost his case before the stacked Supreme Court and ordered deported.

East Brunswick, N.J. Basil Artishenko has been convicted of "atrocities against communists" in his native land of White Russia. He maintains complete innocence and was only 14 at the time.

Chicago Hans Lipscis, 63, is the first to be deported to Germany. He was born in Lithuania and fought in the German army to free his country from communism. The Justice Dept. considers this to be a great crime.

Chicago retired machinist, Conrad Schellong, 72, has been arrested by Allan Ryan's OSI for being Waffen SS colonel and guard at the Dachau camp. Even though pro-holocaust advocates now admit Dachau was never an extermination camp, Schellong still faces deportation. There is no other justification in his case than pure vengeance against anti-communists demanded by organized Jewry.

Tampa, Fla. retiree Kazys Palciauskas, 75, was the Mayor of Kaunas, the capital of Lithuania after it was freed from Russia during World War II. He is being held for deportation because he allowed the German authorities to round up all local communist collaborators who for the most part turned out to be Jews!

Cicero, Illinois Antans Virkutis, 69, from Lithuania is accused of being a warden at a prison where communists and Jews were held during W.W. II. The man should be given a medal and a large pension for life — instead, the Justice Dept. wants him deported to his death in Russia.

Philadelphia, Pa. Serge Kowalchuk is charged by the Jews with being a war criminal (that means a Christian patriot). The Jewish Defense League (JDL) has held noisy rallies in front of his home and beaten up his friends. Neighbors have courageously fought back against the Jew terrorists but the media has suppressed this news.

Israeli Lobby Brags How Congress Manipulated

Below: AIPAC tells how aid to Israel is increased and Arab aid cut by unanimous sub-committee vote — thus forcing Arabs to beg Soviets for arms.

HEARD ON CAPITOL HILL

NEAR EAST REPORT, APRIL 15, 1983 63

Subcommittee Approves $2.55 Billion in Aid

The House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East unanimously approved on April 12 a $2.55-billion military and economic assistance package for Israel for FY 1984. This represents an increase in grant aid of $365 million above the Administration's request.

The panel also voted to bar the sale of sophisticated aircraft and missiles to Jordan until the President certifies to the Congress that "Jordan is publicly committed to the recognition of Israel and to prompt entry into direct peace negotiations with Israel" under U.N. resolutions 242 and 338 and the Camp David Accords.

In another action, the subcommittee defeated two amendments by Rep. MERVYN DYMALLY (D-Calif.) to raise aid to Egypt to a level of parity with Israel, and it cut $25 million in agricultural assistance in an effort to encourage Egypt "to develop its own agricultural production."

The subcommittee rejected an Administration request for a supplemental increase of $35 million in military aid and $4.5 million in economic assistance for Jordan for FY 1983.

Even Split

At the recommendation of Chairman LEE HAMILTON (D-Ind.), the subcommittee voted to split the $1.7 billion in foreign military assistance for Israel evenly between grants and loans. The Administration had recommended $550 million in grant aid and $1,150 million in loans; the current year's funding is $750 million in grants and $950 million in loans. The April 12 decision returns this account to the traditional 50/50 ratio between grants and loans, making it $850 million in grants and $850 million in loans. Economic support funds were increased to $850 million from $785 million, where they had been for the past six years.

Lee H. Hamilton

— of Columbus, Ind. authored increase in aid to Israel.

All 10 members of the subcommittee were present and voted in favor of the increased assistance for Israel. They are: Chairman HAMILTON, Reps. TOM LANTOS (D-Calif.), ANDY IRELAND (D-Fla.), MERVYN DYMALLY (D-Calif.), ROBERT TORRICELLI (D-N.J.), LARRY SMITH (D-Fla.), MEL LEVINE (D-Calif.), LARRY WINN (R-Kan.), MARK SILJANDER (R-Mich.) and ED ZSCHAU (R-Calif.).

Winn, the ranking Republican on the subcommittee, said, "I have always been a strong supporter of the security of the Israeli people. I believe the funding levels approved will help to continue to ensure the security of this valuable ally."

Lantos declared, "It was most fitting that the subcommittee acted to increase aid to Israel the day after President Reagan appeared before 10,000 survivors of the Holocaust to pledge that the security of Israel will never be compromised. The subcommittee's action transformed his words into substance and muscle."

Smith said the vote "symbolizes Congress' strong support for Israel" and he called on the Administration to "follow the lead of the Congress and strengthen relations with America's foremost ally in the region."

No Arms Sale

Much of the session was spent discussing King Hussein's rejection of the Reagan initiative. The subcommittee strongly expressed its opposition to a major Jordanian arms sale until King Hussein enters the peace process. An Administration spokesman assured the subcommittee that none of the funds in the bill for Jordan would be used for that purpose. The Jordan amendment was the work of Reps. Smith, Siljander, Levine, Hamilton and Lantos.

"This Administration has used every kind of carrot to get King Hussein to the table and has used sticks with Israel," Levine said. "It is time to pull back from our policy of currying favor with states whose moderate rhetoric masks their rejectionist conduct. A vital element to peace in the Middle East is Israel's belief that she can count on the support of the United States."

Chairman Hamilton expressed "disappointment with the King's decision not to come in at this time." He added, "I don't support the sale of advanced aircraft to Jordan at this time."

Siljander said the amendment "is an added incentive to encourage and motivate Hussein" to talk peace.

The full House Foreign Affairs Committee will take up its subcommittee's recommendations next week. Across Capitol Hill, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee will begin its mark-up of the foreign assistance authorization bill next week as well. □

Aid To Israel Raised By $365 Million

The daily news media suppressed this report. A House Committee has increased foreign aid to Israel by $365 million to a stupendous grand total of $2.55 billion!! The media deliberately kept this vital news from the American people at a time when Congress is fighting over sending just $60 million to help keep El Salvador from falling to the communists — which is just a drop in the bucket of foreign aid. Just think for a moment — Israel receives over $7 million a day!!!

The increase came by making more of the aid a grant. This is a tricky word which means a FREE GIFT! The American taxpayer is paying for this when we have the largest annual budget deficit in history.

Israeli Lobby — Subversives In Washington

Where did we obtain this highly important news? It comes for "Near East Report," April 15 issue. This is the official newsletter of the "Israel - American Public Affairs Committee" (AIPAC) which constitutes the most powerful lobby in Washington, D.C. AIPAC is an arm of the Israeli government and MOSSAD agents from the Israeli secret intelligence service are on duty there at all times. This is the outfit which tells the Congress when to jump and when to sit!!.

Note the vote was unanimous and how they gloat over the denial of aid to King Hussein of Jordan — which in turn forces him to go to Russia for help and the denial of aid to Egypt!! If this is not against America's best interest — then what is???

(Note: Shocking Cranston remark — "There is no dissent" in rubber stamp Congress.)

HEARD ON CAPITOL HILL

Senate Committee Approves Increase

NEAR EAST REPORT, MAY 6, 1983 75

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee voted unanimously on April 28 to increase aid to Israel for FY 1984 to $2.61 billion. The amount is $425 million in grant assistance above the Administration's request and $225 million above current grant aid levels.

That is the same as the Committee recommended last year: $1.7 billion in military assistance split evenly between loans and grants, plus $910 million in grant economic aid.

One difference, according to Sen. ALAN CRANSTON (D-Calif.), is that last year there "was an acrimonious debate and a close vote"; this year there was no dissent and little debate.

Cranston was the author of the amendment to increase economic support funds from $785 million to $910 million; Sen. RUDY BOSCHWITZ (R-Minn.) was responsible for the amendment to shift $100 million in military aid from loans to grants over FY 1983 levels.

Chairman CHARLES PERCY (R-Ill.) noted that when the Committee began to consider the bill there was "a clear consensus in the Committee to recommend authorizing a level of aid consistent with the amendments by Senator Boschwitz and Senator Cranston."

Percy, who led the opposition to increased Israel aid levels last year, helped lead this year's support for the higher levels. He pointed out that the Administration did not oppose the increases as long as they were not at the expense of other nations.

The increase for Israel was approved by voice vote, with no objections, after an hour of discussion.

Percy and Sen. CHARLES MCC. MATHIAS (R-Md.) indicated they may offer amendments to increase military assistance loan guarantees for Egypt by $25 to $50 million when the mark-up resumes. Mathias said that in view of the increased aid for Israel something should be done for Egypt.

He pointed out that per capita aid to Israel is much higher than that for Egypt in the relationship of dollars to population, although he did not offer this as a criterion. Sen. PAUL SARBANES (D-Md.) suggested that a more accurate perspective would be "aid per capita to the number of potential opponents."

Sen. Paul S. Sarbanes
of Baltimore

— of Baltimore, Md. wants aid gauged by "number of opponents"!

Other Aid To Israel

U.S. Foreign Aid to Israel is just one form of extraction of dollars out of America into the coffers of the Jews. United Jewish Appeal has already raised over $125 million from rich U.S. Jews. All of this money is tax deductible. America has a special arrangement with Israel whereby all who give money in this country to Jew charities in Israel can deduct the amount from their income tax and Jews in Israel who give to American charities can write it off their Israeli income tax. The big problem is that this is a one way program because almost no Jews in Israel give any money to any charities in America. NO OTHER COUNTRY IN THE WORLD ENJOYS SUCH A FRUITFUL RELATIONSHIP WITH THE U.S.

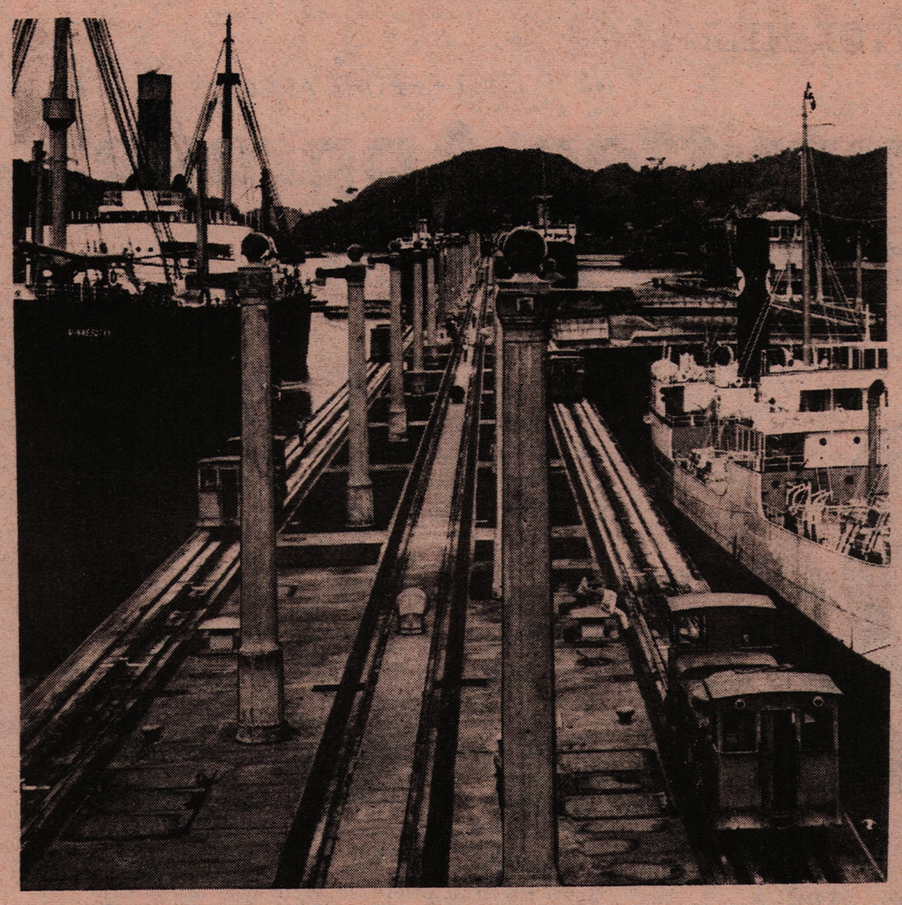
Jew businessmen have financial experts study their income tax to determine just how much they should give for the maximum write-off. Israeli bonds is another big ripoff in which over $50 million in sales have been made this year. These worthless "bonds" pay a mere 4 percent interest. Yet state governments, labor unions, pension funds and other groups are "forced" to buy Israeli Bonds — instead of U.S. bonds — otherwise they will be marked as "enemies of the Jews" and set up for boycotts and other forms of financial harrassment. HOW MUCH LONGER ARE AMERICANS GOING TO ALLOW THIS BLACKMAIL TO CONTINUE?

Take Back The Panama Canal

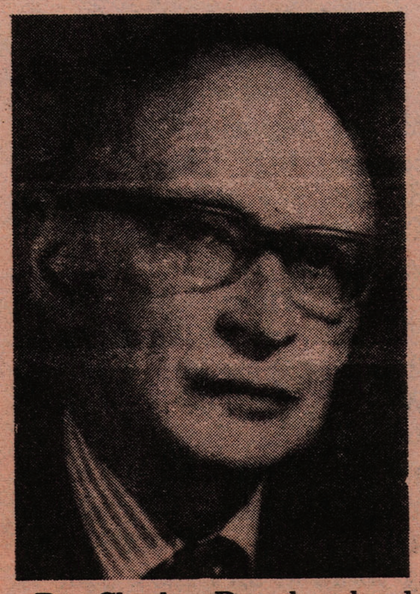
Pres. Carter Tricked Senate Into Approving Sellout Panama Canal Treaty

Sen. John East heads the Senate Subcommittee on Separation of Powers. On June 23 they will hear shocking testimony by Dr. Charles Breecher, former State Department negotiator of dozens of treaties with 13 foreign countries, along with other Panama Canal defenders.

Dr. Breecher says that ex-Pres. Jimmy Carter tricked the Senate into approving the Panama Canal Treaty without revealing a secret "counter-reservation" which gave Marxist Gen. Torrijos total control of the Canal even under any U.S. emergency security need.



The great Panama Canal took Americans 40 years to build. Over half a million men labored on the canal. Several thousand died of malaria and yellow fever. The 51 mile canal cuts through mountains, jungles and swamps. It is one of the Wonders of the World and we demand its return!



Dr. Charles Breecher heads committee fighting for the canal.

The senate made it clear to Pres. Carter they would not approve his giveaway of our $20 billion canal unless the Sen. deConcini reservation was added to the treaty. It declared that, "This reservation guarantees U.S. rights to intervene unilaterally to keep the canal operating."

This was approved by Congress but Carter found that Torrijos would not agree and thus the final version added a "so-called" counter-reservation stating that "Panama must grant consent and cooperation before any intervention by the U.S." This was never approved by the Senate but it was written into the law by Carter's staff and called a great chapter in his administration's diplomatic history.

"Keeping Faith," Pres. Carter's memoirs, remarks on these events on page 174: "Torrijos might renounce the treaties. We decided to review the options. If Torrijos wants to he can issue a reservation about his understanding of what the treaties mean on intervention." Thus was born the counter-reservation.

Gen. Torrijos later boasted in the Marxist newspaper, "La Prensa," Dec. 14, 1980, "If some day this intervention does arise . . . what they may get is the impossibility of traffic through the canal (a threat to sabotage the Panama Canal itself!). The U.S. has filled their quota of shame, and they know their intervention will not be tolerated."

Dr. Breecher says, "The Panama Canal treaties represent the worst fraud ever perpetrated on the United States Senate and on the American people." The monumental theft of our $20 billion canal represents an incalculable loss in national honor, prestige and self-worth — all so a little man named Carter could strut before the TV cameras bestowing kisses on his pal Omar Torrijos flaunting his magnanimity before the world.

With communism spreading in Central America the Panama Canal is indeed threatened and the time has come for a new America First look at this giveaway. We hope Sen. John East's Subcommittee will advocate the abolishment of this treaty and retake our Panama Canal before it is too late to save it from the communists.

Soviet Type Spying

Red Spying On Home Owners

Bankrolled with $150,000 a year, much of it taxpayers' money, a private organization in Decatur (metropolitan Atlanta), Ga., is in the business of entrapping and harassing Whites who may be reluctant to sell or rent their homes to negroes.

'When landlords get to court and see the blacks they've turned away ready to testify against them, some of them just about have cardiacs.'

— Marcia Borowski

Headed by Marcia Borowski, a Jewess of Russian descent, Metro Fair Housing works like this: The "testers," as Comrade Borowski calls them, look for ads listing houses or rooms for rent. Once they select their victims, these spies lunge in for the kill. A black, sometimes alone, sometimes with a white woman posing as his wife, pops up, all decked out in his black manners, his jungle music, his insufferable African swagger. Naturally the White owners, often an elderly couple who are trying to supplement their small social security income by renting a room, don't want to open their doors to Mr. Smell. Whereupon Comrade Borowski hauls the old couple into federal court and charges them with "racial discrimination."

"When they get to court and see the blacks they've turned away ready to testify against them, some of them just about have cardiacs," laughs Jewess Borowski.

Notice the photo. Comrade Borowski is gleefully telling about the Whites who "just about have cardiacs." A picture worth a thousand words!! Here we see the real Jew. It brings to mind the statement of one well-known expert on the Chosen Ones: "In addition to their physical uncleanliness, you discovered the moral stains on this 'chosen people' . . . Was there any form of filth or profligacy, particularly in cultural life, without at least one Jew involved in it? If you cut even cautiously into such an abscess, you found, like a maggot in a rotting body, often dazzled by the sudden light . . . a kike!"

Mrs. Borowski and "Metro Fair Housing," are located on 1879 Columbia Dr., Decatur, Ga., phone no. 288-4040. Mrs. Borowski's home phone is 633-4372. Perhaps you may want to personally tell her what you think of her scheme to give elderly White Christians "cardiac attacks."

She fails to inform people that individual homeowners who sell or rent their property on their own (without going through a real estate agent) are exempt from the evil so-called "Fair Housing Law," and have the right to discriminate by race, religion, color or creed. Why does the news media suppress these vital truths?

Israeli Lobby Claims Jews Elected Black Chicago Mayor

Chicago Jews Elected Negro Mayor

Near East Report, of May 27, is the official voice of the "American-Israel Public Affairs Committee" known as AIPAC. This is the official Zionist lobby in Washington operated by the Israel government. On this page we reproduce their report claiming Jew voters made the difference which elected negro Harold Washington mayor. Thus the question is — why would Jews vote for a negro when his opponent Bernard Epton was a Jew?

One must study Jewish history to understand this phenomena. Jews brag that they take certain actions in unison simply to bring about a break-down in society. They feel that the destabilization of a community brings on crisis and thus results in a public cry for government control. The truth is that Jews see safety in the police state as we documented in Thunderbolt Issue No 287 in which Jewish leaders are quoted declaring democracy is not necessarily the ideal state for Jews.

"You Gentiles" by Jew Maurice Samuels (available from The Thunderbolt, $3 per copy) explains part of this question. He writes: "We Jews are destroyers, even in the instruments of destruction to which we turn for relief. Jews will remain destroyers forever. Nothing that you will do will meet our demands."

Marcus Eli Ravage, Jewish author in "Century Magazine" of Jan. 1982 wrote: "We are intruders. We are trouble makers. We have brought about discord and confusion in your private and public life."

Thus Jews lead such movements as the ERA feminist (Gloria Steinem, Bella Abzug, Betty Freidan, and the fact that Jews founded and financed the NAACP and CORE, etc. The Jews claim they are an eternally dissatisfied people. Their slogan is change for the sake of change, revolution for the sake of revolution! Peace and tranquility is opposite their innate make-up and counter to Jews constant desire for unending confusion and dissension — thus their true motto is — divide and conquer!

(Below from AIPAC report of May 27, 1983).

Did Jews Elect Harold Washington?

Mark Siegel, a former aide to President Jimmy Carter, says that it was Chicago's Jews that made possible the election of Harold Washington, Chicago's first Black mayor. Washington, who won virtually unanimous Black support, needed a sizable minority of whites to defeat Republican nominee, Bernard Epton.

Washington won 18% of the white vote—enough to defeat Epton.

Siegel: "The breakthrough occurred in the Jewish community. Mayor Washington's own polls show that he won 50% of the Jewish vote, a figure that becomes startling when we recall that Bernard Epton . . . is an active member of the Jewish community."

Writing in The Washington Post, Siegel said that the Chicago vote indicates that the Black-Jewish coalition is alive and well.

Siegel, who worked for Washington's election, is a political consultant in Washington.

Classic Example Of TV Character Assassination

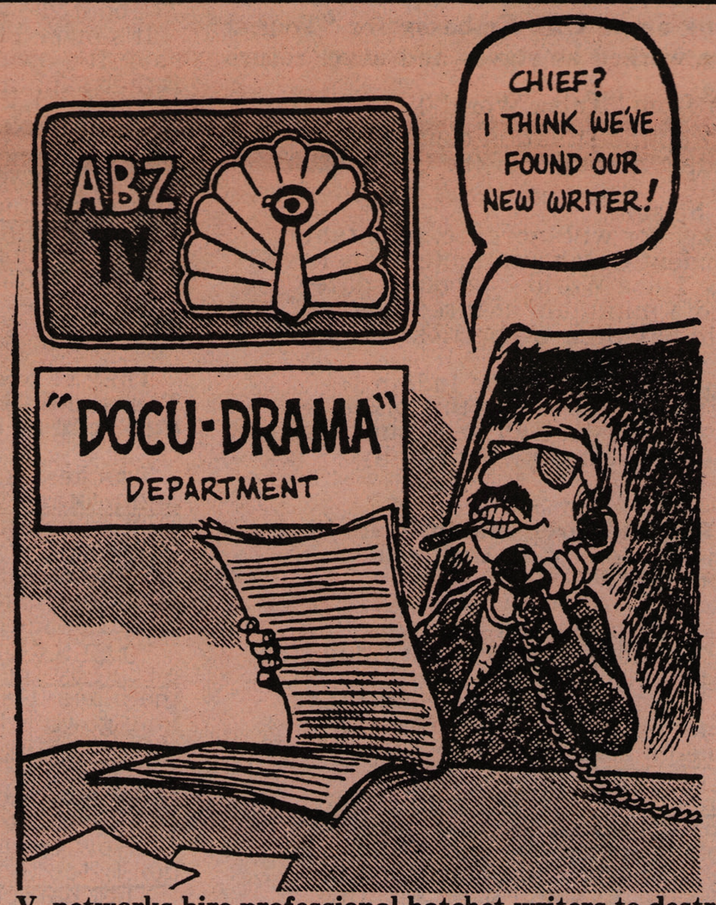
CBS-TV Smear of Gen. Westmoreland Exposed

CBS-TV News accused Patriot Gen. William Westmoreland of serious wrong doing during the Vietnam War by deliberately underestimating the enemy's strength for political reasons. Gen. Westmoreland filed a $120 million libel suit against CBS with the promise of donating any money won in the case to charity. The General says he is only interested in clearing his good name and establishing the truth.

Thus CBS News President Van Gordon Sauter named Burton Benjamin to investigate the production of the show to determine if unfair methods were used. Sauter told the press, "whatever is found will be revealed to the public." But Benjamin's findings were so damaging to CBS that Sauter changed his mind and ordered the report kept completely secret. Still the trial has brought out the following information from the Benjamin report:

- CBS set out to prove Westmoreland guilty of conspiracy.
- They only interviewed those who disliked Westmoreland and ignored those who had evidence to repute the smear.
- CBS paid their chief witness against Gen. Westmoreland a $25,000 fee.
- When witness George Allen defended Westmoreland they browbeat him and then reinterviewed him again disregarding the first tape.
- No investigation was made into the background of the anti-Westmoreland witnesses to see if they were lying.
- Westmoreland was not informed as to purpose of the show when interviewed. He made a minor mistake on a 14 year statistic figure. Later Gen. Westmoreland corrected the error by mail but the mistake was still used on the air to discredit him.
- The truth is that Gen. Westmoreland's figures of Vietcong strength during their Tet offensive were correct and the enemy was defeated in one of the biggest U.S. victories of the war. Gen. Daniel Graham was to be interviewed for the TV show but rejected when CBS learned he would make this statement.

Eight million Mexico City peasants live in these filthy one-room tin shacks breeding disease and death.



T. V. networks hire professional hatchet writers to destroy the reputations of patriots like Gen. Westmoreland, Sen. Joe McCarthy, and many others.

Common Practice of TV Smears

Gen. Westmoreland should win this important case against CBS. The lesson here is that what happened in his case are common tricks used against anyone who is opposed by the super-rich Jewish establishment in America. The suppressed truth is that Jews own or control all three TV networks. (NBC is controlled by the Jew Robert Sarnoff family which has effective stock ownership through their holding company RCA. The Jew William Paley has controlling stock ownership of CBS.

ABC has long had the Jew Leonard Goldenson as president). Most TV programs have Jew producers and directors which are quickly listed at the end of the program and overlooked by most viewers.

What happened to Gen. Westmoreland is an example of how many Patriots and Patriotic organizations have been smeared on TV. So long as an alien race of people control our national TV news outlets the truth will continue to be distorted and those who want to place America first will be maligned.

Does Mexico City Signal End Of World

Mexico City — World's Largest City Faces Disaster

Over 400 years passed before Mexico City's population reached one million. Then low farm prices and the collapse of the peso caused peasants to pour into the city. Some 16 million people have flocked into Mexico City over the past 50 years. The prediction now is that the population may reach an astounding 35 million residents by the year 2000 — just 17 years away.

Mexico City planners have given up. They say no hope exists and soon disease, food, riots, crime, anarchy and revolution may well send the city up in flames and mass deaths. The city is bankrupt, 35,000 factories and 2.4 million cars dump 11,000 tons of waste into the brown smog which makes this the worst case of air pollution.

The following are but a few of the gigantic problems facing Mexico City:

1) Mexico has one of the highest birth rates in the world. They average 6.5 people per family and 51% live in one room tin clapboard slums.

2) This largest slum in the world stretches 100 miles and peasants who have jobs must spent up to five hours traveling to work. The disease ridden slums have no water, drainage, toilets, or electricity. Even garbage collections have broken down. Only 30% of the city's 10,000 tons of garbage a day is collected. Dwellers try in vain to burn excess garbage to control the millions of rats which swarm the city and thus add to the air pollution.

3) All wooded areas surrounding the city have been destroyed and the millions of illegal squatters have seized every available plot of undeveloped land for their tin shacks. Children play in dust and sewers. Even the inner city has become a slum with families squeezed into basements and even living on rooftops. All government projects to ease the squalid conditions have been postponed due to the devaluation of the peso and city bankruptcy.

Other colored third world cities face this same "urban disaster." The poor flood cities which have no housing or other facilities for them. The over-spill of the world's colored population explosion is flooding America and even our cities are beginning to suffer from this invasion by the backward and inferior races of the world. The truth is that our standard of living is directly threatened. If this floodtide is not stopped our very civilization will be destroyed. That is the problem no politician wants to respond to.

Breakdown of Law & Order

Police Not Liable To Protect People

An appellate court in Washington, D.C. has dismissed a million dollar suit against the D.C. police department charging them with negligence. They failed to provide protection to three White women who were victims of a brutal 14 hour ordeal in which they were repeatedly raped and beaten by two knife-wielding negroes.

The intruders broke into their house and began attacking two of the women who lived there and a 4 year old child. Unknown to them a third woman in another part of the house called the police. A black police dispatcher sent a patrol car which merely circled the area. She called again and another car came and the officer knocked on the door. The attackers would not let the women answer under the threat of death. Then, they found the woman who was making the call and began subjecting her to the rape ordeal.

The seven judge court ruled that: "a government and its agents are under no general duty to provide public services, such as police protection, to any particular individual citizen."

Washington Bans Guns

Since the police are not required by law to protect individuals, it is obvious that they must be ready and able to protect themselves. In Washington it is against the law for law abiding people to own guns. ONLY THE CRIMINALS CARRY GUNS ON THE STREETS OF THE NATION'S CAPITAL!

Even long guns are banned unless they are unassembled or have the trigger locked. Of course, such laws should be ignored in the states and cities which have enacted them. Your life is worth more than any fine or even a jail sentence which N.Y. and Connecticut have enacted. Buy all the guns and amunition you can afford. Practice on marksmanship and gun safety. Then if you are attacked, take any action you may deem necessary to protect yourself, your family and your home.

Motels Fall In Indian Takeover

India's Patels — Immigration Fraud —Labor Law Violations Arson for Insurance — Lowering of Motel Standards

By KEN JACKSON
Of the World Staff

Like ants, foraging singly at first and then feeding in massive number, immigrants from India are devouring Oklahoma's and America's motels.

Almost everyone has noted them during their industry penetration.

Media reports — including a recent one from Arkansas — have singled out sectional Indian motel ownership.

No one — until the Tulsa World does so now — has measured and made public the startling magnitude of the takeover.

Indians own six of the seven motels in Altus, an owner reports.

As of a year ago, they owned and operated 10 — all — of the smaller "mom-and-pop" motels on Oklahoma City's Lincoln Boulevard, a motel broker verifies.

Ken Jackson

In Ardmore, they own and operate five — the Motor Lodge, the Stonewood, Terrace Inn, Corral and Triple-D motels.

Indians from India have taken over three of the five motels in Tahlequah, the capital of the Cherokee Indian Nation.

Tax records show on surface only two Indian-owned motels here.

Ishver Patel (more on that name later) owns, in partnership with another Patel (David of Vinita), he said, the Rio Motel on West Skelly Drive.

Mahrenda Nagindas Parekh owns the Big 8 Inn, east of the Turner Turnpike gate.

Industry sources concur, however, that "six or seven" other Tulsa hotels are Indian owned — under corporate titles.

No one knows or can determine by public records precisely how extensive and intensive Indian motel ownership is in Oklahoma.

Some of the Indian owners may know, for they are close-knit; none asked would say in specifics.

Paul Fite, of Midwest Motel Brokers in Tulsa, a pioneer in his field with more than 25 years of national experience, has a best estimate:

"Fifty percent of the motels in the state are now owned by Indians," he said.

An Oklahoma City motel broker, W.E. Hoyt, agreed. "They've bought up all of the smaller ones," he said.

"And that will be higher, is growing fast. I expect it will soon catch up to and pass the national rate, because they (the Indians) are concentrating on the Sunbelt area," Fite said.

Did he mean that national ownership by Indians is now higher than 50 percent?

His authoritative, unqualified answer should shock almost everyone everywhere.

"I've got more national experience than I've had in the state," he said. "And I say national motel ownership by the Indians is pushing 60 percent."

Motels do a mammoth business. Projected national lodging sales for 1981 by motels and hotels total $27 billion, Al Kudrle, public relations director for the American Motel and Hotel Assoication, said.

"We know they're active," John Gamrecki, assistant editor of Hotel-Motel Management Magazine, said from New York.

(His trade publication is considered a "bible" of the motel industry.)

"The Patels — maybe it ought to be called the 'Patel Cartel' — are buying up the Sunbelt. We haven't really researched it. I have no idea of a percentage," he said.

"We're not aware of any special influx into Oklahoma or the Southwest," Verne Jarvis, public information officer for the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, said from Washington.

"But there could be one. We don't keep track of aliens in special areas."

Fred Russell, president of the Oklahoma Hotel and Motel Association, called the situation "...a real problem. I guess it's happening all over the country. I don't know how many they've bought in Oklahoma. Maybe 50?

"Our concern is that they don't run down quality."

Individual motel owners and managers in Oklahoma know and volunteer much more.

Patel women in India line up at U.S. Embassy for "Tourist visas." Once here, they are worked as slaves and never return home.

(Below from "Tulsa World")

They also sum up the situation concisely, as did Patrick Bajdek, manager of the Camelot in Tulsa.

"It is scary," he said.

The Indian takeover will increase, inevitably.

Every independent Oklahoma motel owner contacted by the Tulsa World — about a dozen in all — reported a minimum of three to five monthly offers to buy their properties, all made by Indians.

" 'Cash is no problem,' this one Indian woman who tried her best to buy this place said to me,' " said Marsha Fall Leaf, manager of the Skyline Motel, owned by her family in Bartlesville.

"This month I've had three Indians walk in off the street and try to buy it. Another one tried through a realtor.

"I get several calls a month from them, trying to buy. Most are long distance, but I don't know where they're from.

"We're going to sell this place, have already bought another motel, but I wouldn't sell to an Indian. They bleed a place, and I've put a lot of work and pride into this one.

"Some salesmen won't sell to them, either. They come to my door, and the first thing they ask is, 'Is this place Indian-owned?' "

Dave Kalister, owner of the Chief Motel in Ardmore, said he has had, in recent months, "...20 to 30 calls from India Indians trying to buy my place.

"And six or seven — the kind with stars (caste marks) on their heads — have come by — with their families. All of them seem to be a relative of someone who already has a motel. Several have been from Amarillo.

"One day, just to see what in the hell would happen, I quoted one of them an outrageous price on the phone. He drove right up from Texas, wanted to see my books and my profit-and-loss statement.

"It had gone far enough. I told him I wouldn't sell.

"But they (Indians) may own this one (motel), too. I'm going to retire in about three years, and I don't know what else to do except sell it to one of them."

Those long in the industry say Indians first got into this country's motel business perhaps 25 years ago — in California.

"They bought the 'mom-and-pop' motels, the ones they could get then for $5,000 down," Fite said.

"Now, they have just about ruined it out there, on the coast.

"And now they're buying the big ones, Ramada Inns, Best Westerns, Holiday Inns, puting up $500,000 down payments. It's a sellers' market now.

"They (the Indians) buy, but they're awful poor at operations. A lot of their places are rundown, trashy."

The pattern of buying has been vague. After California, Indians invested heavily for awhile in the far U.S. northeast. Hine mentioned later concentration in the southeast, primarily Georgia and Florida.

All sources agree that the nation's been covered — while heaviest action boils now in the Sunbelt.

Considerable bitterness among non-Indian Oklahoma motel owners and operators surfaced in almost every Tulsa World interview.

"They've changed — hurt — my business," Fite went on. "Not a day goes by I don't get calls and two or three letters from Indians.

"They'll call from California and give me one name and find out what's for sale, and then another one with a different name — nearly always 'Patel' — will, the next thing I hear, have bought it.

"They sneak around you, go around you. I just don't do business with them."

"They are so damn demanding," an Oklahoma motel owner who asked that his name not be used said. "No one can work with them or for them."

In the last year or two, as Fite said, Indians have tried to buy bigger motels.

"I get four or five calls a month," Gwen Simmons, manager of the premium 108-unit Ramada Inn in Bartlesville said.

"I've asked so I know that some of those calls come from California. They've all got foreign accents, so I guess they're Indians.

"My brother, Gerald Coast, owns this motel. I ask them when they call what they want, trying to save him bother, and they say they want to buy it. They get real arrogant with me, demanding to talk to him."

The "Townsmen Budget Motel" is on U.S. 75 about 200 yards north of her inn.

It's owned by N. U. Patel, his son, Nahlin, said. It's owned by a "family of Patels," his father said (away from his son).

"They (the Bartlesville Patels) try to buy from me," Ms. Simmons said. "Anything old. They're always after old mattresses and so on.

"I sold them a few bed sets, for $20, but they griped so much at that price that I just don't do business with them anymore. They don't want to pay anything."

Some Indians after big properties have succeeded. They have now bought and own Holiday Inns in Texas, industry officials confirm.

They've acquired Best Westerns in Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma, other areas. (Some of these can no longer carry the BW trademark.)

Truckers at a Tulsa stop verified — loudly and profanely at times — that the web of Indian ownership stretches across the U.S. — and thickens.

"You stop at any motel that isn't part of a big American chain on any major state, regional or national highway," one said.

"You'll damned sure find out they're all owned by Indians, four or five of 'em working the place. Hell, a lot of 'em still wear those long-gown things. The places all stink — of their cooking, of spice of some kind."

"Up on 76 (U.S. Highway) going out of Colorado into Nebraska, there was four of them in a row I used to stop at, " another trucker said.

"Now Indians run all four. And I damn sure don't stop there anymore."

That name: Patel.

It originally, said R.L. Patel, who owns the Capri Motel in Durant, meant "farmer." That was hundreds of years ago, and has changed, he added.

It came to mean "businessman" in the languages the Indians use, an immigration official said.

"It means 'motel man' here," a motel-chain executive said flatly.

It is actually an evolved generic classification for Indians of a type or from a region in India. People who own, adopt or use "Patel" in the U.S. may or may not be related — in most cases aren't.

It is used so widely here — probably as a device to gain anonymity or create confusion — that Susan Fitzgerald, a Best Western corporate-communications official, said:

"Twenty five of our Best Western motels have been sold to Indians — all to people named Patel — our computer reports.

"Did I check for other Indian names? I didn't know there were any others buying motels."

Kalister may have touched, not meaning to, on the possible end result of voracious Indian pursuit of America's highway-lodging places.

"One down in Gainesville (Texas), a ma-and-pa place, was bought by Indians from Indians," he said.

"It's now on a third mortgage."

India's Millions Ready To Follow Patels To U.S.

Petal Motel Scheme

By KEN JACKSON
Of the World Staff

Why and how have Indian immigrants bought an estimated 50 percent of the motels in Oklahoma and 60 percent of those in the U.S.?

Has the avid, almost-silent and economically startling takeover been legal?

How, under stiff U.S. immigration laws, has it been possible?

Where has all the cash come from?

Why do almost all of the Indian motel owners and operators refuse to talk about their efforts and operations?

"I won't talk about it," said a series of eastern Indians named Patel (not related, they said) in Tahlequah, Tulsa, Muskogee, Bartlesville, half a dozen other Oklahoma towns.

"We don't want it to be in the paper," said Nalin Patel, son of U.N. Patel, who operates the Townsmen Budget Motel in Bartlesville. Asked specific questions, he answered repeatedly:

"I don't feel like going into that."

He finally said: "I don't feel like going into anything. It maybe would not hurt me. It might hurt somebody else, some of my people."

He did acknowledge that his father owned the motel. He also said he would not let a Tulsa World reporter talk to his father.

The reporter did.

A "family partnership" owns the motel, the elder Patel said, contradicting his son.

India is notorious for its poverty, he was reminded. Where did the money come from to buy all the motels Indian immigrants now control?

"The business community in India," he said. "There is a rich business community, communities. And from families, partnerships, all over the world. There is investment in Zambia, Australia, many other countries. Indians work very hard, all over."

Who bought this Bartlesville motel? "Family," he said. "It is owned by a family partnership."

Is that family in California?

"Perhaps," he said. "Some family is in California."

A car stopped on the motel drive, and four men, Indian in appearance, got out.

"More family," Patel said to the reporter. He rushed to meet them, usher them into his living quarters — and to end the brief interview.

Only one Indian, R.L. Patel, who has owned the Capri Motel in Durant for a year, would talk at any length — guardedly.

"Everything is legal with me, so I am not afraid to talk to you," he said.

Are motels bought to enable Indians to enter the U.S. illegally?

"That would be a reason," he said. "Yes, it is quite possible. Quite a few bring in relatives on temporary visas — and they remain.

"No, I can't pinpoint any of that for you. Not any of that at all."

Where does the money come from?

"My money came from working 16 years in England before I came here. In computers.

"The money for others? Well, people have worked in India, Africa, Zambia, other countries, are well off. They have scratched for a long time for their money. We all work very hard. We are very proud of our work, our industry.

"There's another factor — a lot of cooperation from friends, relatives, families. We have a lot of common ties."

Does money for motel buys come from California corporations?

"That is true," he said. "You must know the history of Indian immigration. They came to California first. Motels were cheap. Maybe $5,000 down. Now those Indians invest elsewhere. At the moment it is here, in Oklahoma.

"You must also understand the reason many do not talk is because they feel insecure. There is some ill will. From suppliers, organizations who want money, others in a town. We get adverse telephone calls.

"Many do not say they are owners. They say they are managers or just workers, so they will not get pushed around."

U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service officials believe there's purpose behind the pattern of motel purchases by Indian immigrants.

"The principal reason for these kinds of business investments is to enable aliens to immigrate to the United States without being subject to labor certification requirements," said Glenn A. Bertness, assistant INS commissioner for investigations in Washington, D.C.

INS agents investigate aliens who may not be authorized to live or work at Indian-owned motels, Verne Jarvis of the INS public informations office said.

"But a lot of Indian immigrants may have come here illegally — and may have adjusted by now," he said.

The immigrants often arrive in the U.S. with temporary visas and enough money for a down payment on a motel, other INS agents say.

When the payment is made, the motel is set up as a partnership or corporation, headed by the motel owner. The immigrant then qualifies for permanent, resident-alien status — gets his "green card," his authorization to work and live here.

A corporation formed by Indians may also sell shares in the business to immigrants, allowing them to gain permanent-resident status.

The corporation may also sell a motel direct to an immigrant, the INS says.

"Yes, there is something in saying Indians form corporations to buy motels," R.L. Patel said.

"And, you must remember, a lot of Indians are real estate agents in the United States now."

All of this is, in most all cases, absolutely legal.

The incessant and intricate wheeling and dealing becomes illegal, the INS says, only if certain laws are not followed.

If relatives furnish money for a down payment, it is a foreign investment — and must be reported. If it is not, the purchase is illegal.

It is a violation of law if a sale is made and recorded — but no money changes hands.

Some Indians have come as "treaty traders," Jarvis said.

James M. Woods, INS officer at Oklahoma City, explained that.

He said treaties of trade and commerce between India and the U.S. (they exist with other countries) have allowed Indians to invest here and become citizens.

The investment, as a rule, must be a minimum of $40,000, he said.

There have been some cases of fraud — in which an Indian buys a motel under the treaty, then sells it to a friend who becomes a citizen — Woods said.

"It is very difficult to prove fraud," Jarvis said.

He said the annual U.S. immigration quota for Indians is 20,000.

"But spouses, parents and childrens of immigrants who become U.S. citizens, may come here legally," he added.

R.L. Patel said he came to the U.S. "...on a blood relationship. My brother is an American citizen."

Most Indian motel operators contacted have been in Oklahoma from one to three years. They all said they plan to become U.S. citizens.

At least five Indians worked last week at the Budget Motel in Bartlesville. Nalin Patel identified his father, admitted a sister, would not name or identify a sari-dressed woman, a young man.

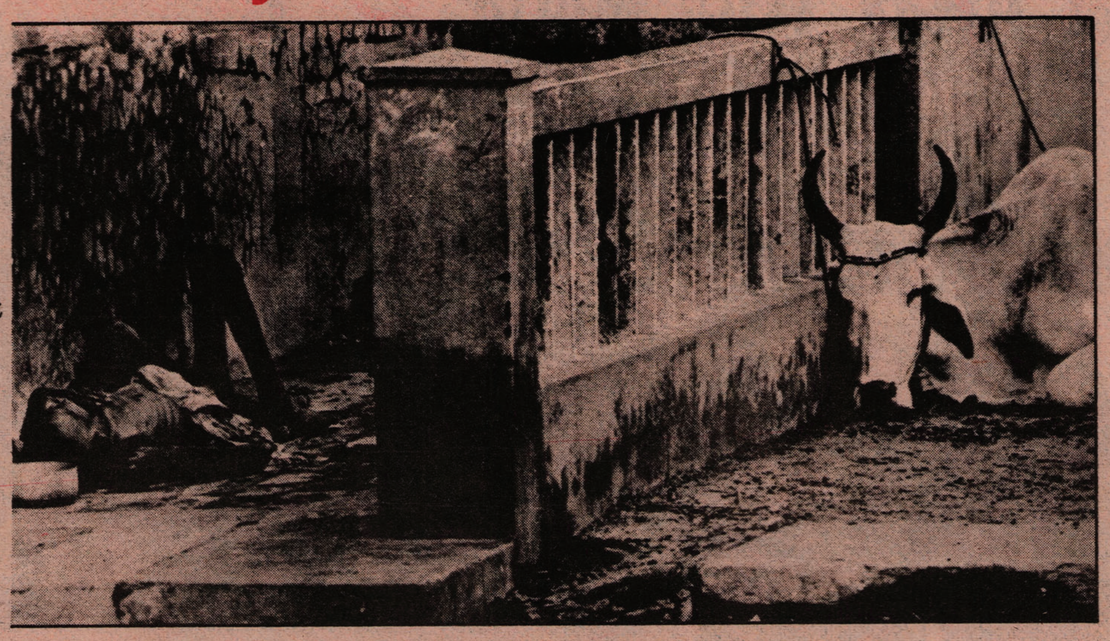
He said he came to the U.S. "for studies" at West Texas State University in Canyon three years ago, now has a permanent visa.

He would not explain further.. "I don't want any publicity," he repeated.

In Tulsa, Ishver Patel, a partner-owner in the 74-unit Rio Motel on West Skelly Drive, several times told a reporter, "I don't want to get involved."

A young man, Indian, who apparently spoke no English, sat in the Rio office with Patel. "He is a friend from India," Patel said to a question.

"Yes, his name is Patel, but he is no relation. Patel is like Smith here."



Asian starves to death as healthy "Holy Cow" rests. People believe cows are the reincarnation of deceased relatives and must be fed, worshipped and cared for while the ignorant, superstitious, starving Asians die!!

Indians Starve While "Holy" Cattle And Rats Eat Nation's Food Supply

America, Germany and England have given billions of dollars to India to keep their soaring population from starving. The Hindu religion teaches that the dead return in the form of animals especially cattle and rats. In some areas it is against local customs to even kill rats and throughout India it is against the law to kill cattle — EVEN IN THE FACT OF A STARVING AND DYING POPULATION!!

India's constitution declares cows to be holy and bans their slaughter. There are some 275 million cattle roaming India's countryside and befouling city streets. It is estimated that there will be one billion people in India by the year 2,000 and 400 million holy cows. The decreasing resources of the nation means cattle may live while people starve. The cattle must be allowed to feed wherever they please. Recently, two sacred cows were killed in New Delhi and religious Hindus rioted. Stores were burned and 25 people injured. Some 1,150 rioters were arrested as the violence spread to 15 other towns as news of the cattle deaths spread.

India's Patel Family Invades America

Asians from India named "Patel" have silently invaded America and bought up over 60% of all our motels. They are from a huge family which loans one another money to buy motels. This is illegal but through a loop hole in the immigration laws it permits the Asians to obtain temporary work visas called "green cards."

The Patels come here on tourist and student visas. They don't go to school but they buy into the motel business. Once they have a "green work card" they can bring in their mother, father, brothers, sisters, cousins, nieces and nephews, etc., etc. The Asian invasion of America is well under way.

Criminal Patel Activities

The Immigration Dept. has not investigated the Patels. The "Tulsa World" article by Ken Jackson is the only indepth report on Patel activities we have ever seen. Not only are the Patels guilty of massive income tax evasion but they are in direct violation of U.S. Immigration laws.

1) The Petals will burn down any motel which does not make money and then buy another.

2) They cheapen motels by refusing to make repairs or keep the furnishings up to par.

3) Some hire prostitutes to ply their trade in the motel.

4) Suppliers hate to do business with Patels because they cheat on their bills.

5) Patels will never give a receipt for a cash payment on a room — this is tax free money to them.

6) Once they buy a motel all Americans working there are fired. They bring in more Patels from India to work for free — they notoriously work their children from dawn to dusk.

7) As soon as Patels bring elderly relatives here from India they apply for Social Security SSI payments. This is in utter disregard of their signed pledge to the INS their relatives will not become a public charge. The Patels simply laugh at U. S. laws.

Dr. Fields' Experience

A Night In A Patel Motel

Last but not least is your editor's experience when I stayed at the Conyers, Georgia motel last winter when working with our nearby printer. On this very cold night the Patel owner only furnished one very thin blanket for the bed in my room. There were only shabby furnishings in the room of this once very nice and up to date motel. Then I noticed there was no soap to wash with. When I went to the front desk I was grudgingly given a small sliver of soap and told, "Sorry, but you know there is a soap shortage" — that was news to me! Then at about 1 A.M. in the morning I awoke almost freezing. The Patels had turned off the heat to save money. THUS THE MOTEL INDUSTRY IN AMERICA IS BEING INDIANIZED LIKE ALL THE HORRORS WHICH HAVE DESTROYED THEIR HOME LAND OF INDIA!

Blacks Get Away With Murder

Black Juries Refuse To Convict Fellow Blacks Miss. Case Proves We Are Living Under a New Reconstruction Era

Immediately after the end of the Civil War Confederate Veterans and civil servants were disinfranchised (they lost their right to vote). Thus the freed slaves, scalawags and carpetbaggers made up a majority of the voters. Negroes seized political control of cities, counties and entire states. Mississippi had two black U. S. Senators.

Tchula, Miss., elected Eddie Carthan (now age 33) as the first black mayor since Reconstruction. Four out of the five aldermen elected were blacks. Not long thereafter Carthan and six other blacks were arrested by state authorities for severely beating the city's last remaining White police officer. Carthan was sentenced to three years in prison but remained as mayor from 1977 to 1981 during his appeal.

The mayor and aldermen got into violent arguments. Things were so heated the blacks often carried side arms to the aldermanic meetings. During this period Mayor Carthan was convicted of taking a $2,000 bribe from a man who was defrauding the town's day-care center for black children. Carthan was also indicted for embezzling $8,500 in U. S. payments to the town's food program for black children.

Ex-Mayor Eddie Carthan of Tchula, Miss., gives communist salute after acquittal by black jury.

Carthan Story

The motive for Carthan's violent hatred for Granderson was that he initiated the action of the aldermen to try and save the city from bankruptcy. They voted to cut Carthan's salary from $600 per month to $60. They agreed to close down city hall to save money and disconnect Mayor Carthan's phone and fire the police chief he appointed. They agreed to have aldermanic meetings in their homes to save money.

His successor, current Mayor Lester Lyon (black) said, "Carthan tried to make a big production of a small-town, part-time mayor's job. He put in an expensive switchboard in city hall, hired a friend as an administrative assistant and gave all his friends jobs with raises. He let them carry guns around town and intimidate people. This is not the wild west. That's why the city went broke under his administration."

Charged In The Killing of Black Foe

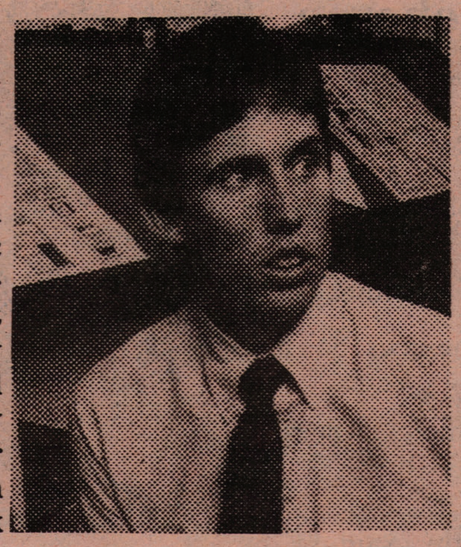
Negro Roosevelt Granderson, 88, an alderman and political opponent of Carthan, was murdered in the convenience store where he worked on June 28, 1981. Arrested were two young blacks, both from East St. Louis, Ill., and both related to Mayor Carthan. Convicted were Vincent Bolden and Nathaniel Hester. They had the money from the store in their possession when arrested. Pleading guilty and accepting life imprisonment instead of the electric chair the pair confessed they were hired by Mayor Carthan to kill Granderson (who was a popular local basektball coach). They said Carthan gave them $500 in advance and said after the killing they would receive $10,000 more from a bank robbery the mayor was going to pull off.

Civil Rights Groups Defends Mayor Carthan

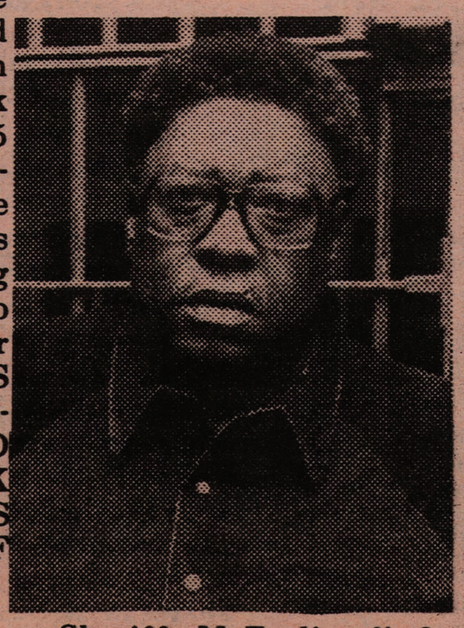
Carthan charged he was being framed by the "White political structure." District Attorney Hallie Bridges (also black) told the all-black jury: "What we have here is a black man charged with hiring two black men to kill another black man!"

Still this did not deter demonstrations protesting the case by Rev. Joseph Lowery of the SCLC with protest rallies held in New York City and Washington, D.C. Negro actors Dick Gregory and Ossie Davis joined the show to free Carthan. A poverty law group, subsidized by taxpayers in Washington, "The Christic Institute," furnished Carthan with two expert defense attorneys. They were able to strike most all Whites off the jury panel by asking them if they had ever in their lives used the term "nigger." They didn't ask potential black jurors this question which is a word they use more than White people. Thus the empaneled jury was made up of seven black women and five black men. It took them only 45 minutes to find Carthan "innocent." He had packed the courtroom with 100 of his supporters, many wearing "I love Africa" buttons, who jumped and shouted their approval. THIS IS JUSTICE RECONSTRUCTION STYLE. LAW AND ORDER WILL BREAK DOWN AS BLACKS TAKE OVER ALL OF OUR MAJOR CITIES!

White Editor Exposes Black Power Corruption



Bob Gorman, courageous editor.



Sheriff McFarlin finds himself behind bars.

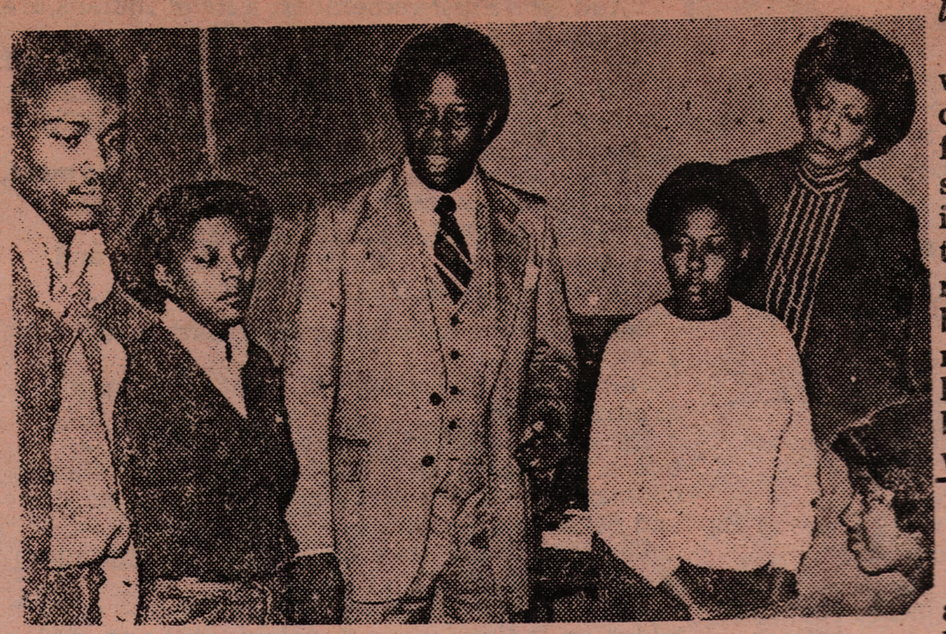
Black Jury Refuses To Convict Black Sheriff

South Carolina's Williamsburg County is 70% black. They elected negro Theodore McFarlin Sheriff and he has been in trouble ever since. In 1978 and 1979 McFarlin was investigated by a grand jury for tax evasion but not indicted. Then on Aug. 12, Bob Gorman, editor of "The Kingstree News" reported that two black guards at McFarlin's jail stood by and watched while six black inmates took turns homosexually raping two young White inmates charged with only minor offenses. There were 14 black prisoners in the jail at the time charged with serious crimes including burglary and armed robbery. The black guards ignored the screams of the White youths.

McFarlin was indicted and suspended from his job. When the case came up for trial the seven blacks on the jury refused to vote for conviction! Bob Gorman said, "There is no doubt if he were running tomorrow the blacks would reelect McFarlin. White candidates can't get elected here any longer."

April 9 Sheriff McFarlin was indicted again on 22 counts of misconduct in office. The new indictments state that McFarlin used the inmates like slaves forcing them to run personal errands for him, work in his barbecue restaurant, and misuse of jail funds. It is highly doubtful that a new black jury can be found which will convict McFarlin.

FBI Recruits Blacks



FBI agents Charles Matsen, center, and Miss Johnnie Gibson, right, explain to negro students at Albany State College the benefits of a career with the FBI.

FBI Recruiting Black Agents

The FBI is busy trying to recruit negro college students. They have chosen negro agents Charles Matsen and Miss Johnnie Gibson to visit black colleges throughout the South urging students to consider the FBI as a career.

Speaking at the negro Albany, Ga. State College Agent Matsen told the students there were three reasons they should consider joining the ranks of the FBI. First, the starting salary is $28,000 a year; secondly, the excitement of being an agent; thirdly, fully paid travel expense accounts. Some of the young blacks shouted back, "right on" and "man, that's the life."

Sensible people, reading this news wondered why the black FBI agents did not appeal to the student's desire to serve their nation, patriotism, fighting subversion and crime. Perhaps the FBI considered this too deep a subject for the blacks to comprehend. More and more coloreds are being recruited into the FBI and many Patriots are now duly concerned about the long range results of these drives. We are fully aware of how integration has demoralized our local police.

Homos Honor "Newsweek"

NABC represents lesbians and homos. Their head, Werner Kuhn, issued an award "for excellence in positive reporting on gay issues." Kahn reported that Newsweek portrayed homosexuality as a legitimate normal lifestyle. Newsweek says gays are part of "God's plan of creation" and should be accepted by churches.

Newsweek actually sent Washington Bureau chief, Mel Elfin (Jew) to accept the award! It should be noted that Newsweek is owned by the Jewess Katharine Graham and the managing editor is the Jew Kenneth Auchincloss. Jews support all radical minority causes because they believe it undermines the influence of the White majority, wins them allies for pro-Zionist causes, and destabilizes order in America.

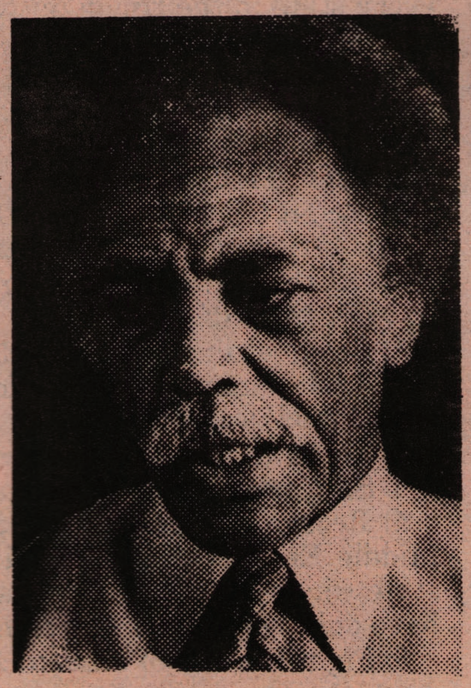
Negroes Claim Their "Heroes" Innocent

Cocaine In Congress

Cong. Dellums Accused In Cocaine Case

Calif. Rep. Ronald Dellums has served six terms in Congress and because of his seniority is now chairman of the House Armed Services Subcommittee on military installations expenditures. He will oversee the spending of $45 billion which is one of the largest budgets. Now ex-House doorkeeper Robert Yesh and two other witnesses have testified before a federal grand jury that Dellums regularly bought and used cocaine.

Dellums says the charges are "politically motivated" and an attempt to remove him from his powerful military spending post. At the same time, Rep. Louis Stokes (D.-Ohio) who heads the House Ethics Committee "tipped off" Dellums he was being investigated. Now Congress must investigate Stokes for unethical conduct.



Rep. Dellums accused of cocaine use.

Another Hung Black Jury

Blacks "Hang Jury" In Clear Cut Case

Georgia's DeKalb County had negro Tom Nave appointed its first assistant district attorney since Reconstruction. Nave, 31, was not on the job long before he was arrested for accepting a $4,200 bribe from Francine Lewis to drop fraud charges against her. Nave admitted to accepting money but told the outlandish story that he was merely saving the money for her "college education." On April 1, he marked her case "insufficient evidence," which placed it in the inactive file.

Thus Nave was indicted and tried for accepting a bribe. The problem was that the jury was made up of 10 negroes and two Whites. After two days of bitter wrangling, shouts outside the jury room could be heard. "That's not a bribe," yelled one woman. "Sure it's a bribe," a man yelled back. The jury was hung along racial lines 9 to 3 for acquittal. The defense attorney is Calvin Leopold (Jew) who says he is ready for the retrial which is due soon. The chief problem is that blacks will not convict other blacks in important cases.

Assistant D.A. Tom Nave charged with bribery.

Strange Deaths Attest To Racial Inequality

Arturo Brown died on basketball court for no medical "cause"?

William Brock — Volkswagen's highest negro executive, commits suicide.

Raped Girl Arrested

Atlanta negro Judge Clint Deveaux ordered Stephanie Harris, 17, arrested and thrown into jail after the man she accused of raping her said she helped a thief rob him of $200. Negro Phillip Jones, 34, was indicted in the rape. He denied the attack and a black jury found him "not guilty." Miss Harris has now filed a $450,000 suit against Judge Deveaux for false arrest.

How Mental Pressure Kills Negroes

The Thunderbolt has carried a series of articles on black athletes who suddenly die during a game or practice. There is no medical explanation for their deaths — they just simply die "natural deaths." Of course they are under great mental strain in most cases and the competition is great. On this page is another negro basketball "star", Arturo Brown who simply collapsed during a game and died.

Dr. Jeff Isner says it has something to do with restricting blood flow to the heart, "No one really knows," he added. This problem is unknown among Whites and another "difference between the races." It also is an additional reason why blacks should not be placed in leadership positions (including the military).

Under Pressure Black Executive Commits Suicide

New Stanton, Penna. is the home of America's huge Volkswagen auto plant. Negro William B. Brock was the highest black executive there until he committed suicide on Jan. 7. Brock was head of the equal opportunity office until 1979 when he was promoted to a job training other blacks in management. This $300 million plant has 10% black workers while the neighboring area is only 2% black.

A nine man black caucus within the company had prepared a statement accusing the company of not promoting blacks fast enough and charging others were fired without justification. Brock was "agonizing" over whether or not to sign the statement. Also there was pending against him a complaint of "sexual harassment" by a White female employee. Brock couldn't face the future and wrote an incoherent letter beginning: "Dear World. I am your leader — maybe you can consider me . . ."

He then shot himself in the head. Here was another negro given a high paying job and responsibilities he was not racially able to handle. Again and again this problem is experienced by companies who promote blacks over Whites and expect them to be able to handle the situation. Many Whites forced to work under blacks tell us that the negroes lack confidence in themselves and make tyrannical bosses.

Black Mayors Demand Release Of "Watergate Hero"

Frank Wills was the black security guard who gained national fame after discovering the 1972 break-in at the offices of the Democratic National Committee in the Watergate complex. The scandal eventually resulted in the first resignation of an American President — Richard Nixon. Ever since, Willis has been unable to capitalize on the adulation showered upon him by the media and has floated from job to job.

Augusta, Ga. is his present residence and in 1979 he was arrested for shoplifting a 29¢ ballpoint pen in a local area store. He was fined $100. Then on Sept. 12 he was arrested again for shoplifting a $12 pair of sneakers. This time he was sentenced to one year in jail.

Newark, N.J. Mayor Kenneth Gibson and East Orange, N.J. Mayor Thomas Cooke protested. The pair issued this statement: "We are sick and tired of obvious abuse of our African brothers. We firmly believe that the treatment of Mr. Will is grounded in negative racial attitudes toward African Americans, if not outright racism."

Thus the pair started a defense fund for Wills, hired Augusta negro attorney Jack Ruffin, posted $3,000 appeal bond for Wills and demanded he be exonerated. The time has arrived when any black who is considered a "leader" or "hero" cannot be found guilty in court because he can claim to be a victim of "White racism." Again we repeat that Black Power political rule in America is bringing about a breakdown in law and order. Violence and race war in the streets is the eventual end of such an attitude on the part of the black community.

All Jew Legislators Belong to Secret Organization Which Works For Israeli Government.

(Below from "New York Jewish Press")

Re-Elected As Pres. Of Jewish Legislators

New York — Senator Abraham Bernstein (D-L Bronx), has been re-elected for a second term as President of the National Association of Jewish legislators (NAJL). The NAJL is composed of Jewish State legislators throughout the United States, who are concerned first with safeguarding American-Jewish national interests and second, in promoting and maintaining a stable and cooperative relationship between the U.S. and Israel.

Senator Bernstein addressed NAJL members in July at its National Meeting in Atlanta, Georgia. The Senator called upon U.S. leaders and the American people "to understand that although Israel is a nation committed to peace, it must be prepared constantly to defend itself against terrorist groups and enemies sworn to destroy the State of Israel." The Senator, an ardent supporter of a viable U.S.-Israel alliance, has been active in the efforts to achieve greater national recognition that Israel is the only true democracy and stable friend of the U.S. in the Mideast, notwithstatnding the pressures of the oil producing countries. He was also active in consolidating national opposition to the AWAC sale to Saudi Arabia.

Senator Bernstein highlighted what he feels are the key concerns of the NAJL in 1982. The Senator stated, "The Middle East ensures the stability and peace of the entire world. This Association hopes to play a vital role in supporting the alliance between the United States and Israel. It is submitted that the strategic international interests of the U.S. are best served by providing Israel with assistance and political support.

Secret National Organization of Jew Legislators From Every State In The Nation Behind Jew Projects

There is a Congressional Black Caucus, a Hispanic Caucus, a Congressional Jew Caucus and state legislative black and Hispanic caucuses. FOR THE VERY FIRST TIME WE HAVE DISCOVERED A SECRET "National Association of Jewish Legislators" (NAJL).

The "Jewish Press" of Nov. 13 in New York City revealed the existence of this group and stated they held a meeting in Atlanta, Ga. with members attending from every state in the Union but we could find no evidence of this gathering reported in any Atlanta newspaper. Enclosed is the shocking article from the "Jewish Press." The big question is: DO THESE ELECTED LEGISLATORS REPRESENT THEIR CHRISTIAN CONSTITUENTS OR DO THEY REALLY REPRESENT THE INTERESTS OF ISRAEL AND ORGANIZED JEWRY?

The article reproduced on this page answers this question. At their Atlanta meeting, the Jew Legislators agreed to work toward:

1) Safeguarding Jewish national interests.

2) Maintaining a stable and cooperative relationship with Israel. (Meaning foreign aid to Israel.)

3) To be alert to the enemies of Israel.

4) Support a viable U.S.-Israel alliance.

5) Recognize Israel as the only true Democracy in the Middle East. (This is a total lie. Israel is a totalitarian state where the Arabs have no rights at all and the Jews have only very restrictive rights.)

6) Fight the sale of arms to America's best ally — Saudi Arabia!

7) Build an alliance with Israel with more foreign aid.

Thus we mut ask ourselves the question — How many of their Christian constituents know these are their objectives? The plain fact is the voters do not realize that Jews elected to local political office still put the interests of a foreign nation first. If this fact was more widely known, there would be a march to the polls and only White Christians would be holding their office.

'Jewish teachers oppose Christmas in schools'

There has been a traditional Christmas program at the school I'm teaching at for many years. This includes the usual Christmas decorations and also a nativity scene on the stage with religious music about Christ.

I don't feel that the nativity scene and religious music show a separation of church and state. I have explained to my principal for several years that I will not teach Christian religion to my students, nor will I participate in this program. I've also tried to explain that this is a public institution and not a religious school.

My principal has insisted that I must go along with this or any other Christmas program since she's my boss and her decision is the one I must follow. We have discussed this issue at length for several years. She apparently feels that I'll change my mind or be happier teaching in a Jewish neighborhood. I don't see the Christian teachers having to defend their beliefs.

From my point of view, part of this problem stems from my fellow Jewish teachers. They would rather passively go along than stand up for any convictions. (This situation seems similiar to pre-WW II Germany.) I'm writing to you because i don't feel I would get the proper response from the Chicago Board of Education or the Teacher's Union. If I brought this issue up with them I would possibly receive a lowered yearly evaluation, be transferred to a less desirable position, etc. The famous last words from the Board of Education seems to be: "if you don't like it here maybe you should get out of teaching."

I would like to see more Jewish teachers do something about eliminating this problem. If we don't respect ourselves and stand up for ourselves, no one else will do it.

Fingers Crossed Xstian Expression

Editor, POST and OPINION:

I have been a subscriber to your newspaper for the past 25 years and have always looked forward to receiving it. I was shocked, however, by the heading you used to describe the stalemate on the peace negotiations between Israel and Egypt in your Friday, Sept. 12 edition of the paper. To use as a headline, "Jews Have Fingers Crossed On New Negotiations", I believe, was a faux pas and a lack of good judgement. To my mind, "Fingers Crossed", is a Christian-like expression which has no place in a Jewish newspaper.

Dear Editor:

All of us get solicitations of funds through the mail. Sometimes I think I'm on every list in the country. I don't mind. I count my blessings and manage a few dollars to worthy charities. I don't let color or religion prejudice me. I do resent when I get a heartfelt plea say from Appalachia. Why do they call themselves Christian Appalachia? They send me pictures of dying children, skin and bones, and the director asks for contributions to open up our Christian hearts. I feel sometimes that Jewish people are excluded.

Anti-Christian Hate Revealed

Jewish Teacher Says Allowing Christmas In Schools Like Nazism!

The Chicago Jewish Sentinel, Feb. 3, carries a letter by a Chicago Jewish teacher demanding that Jewish teachers unite and take an active stand to eradicate all Christian celebrations from public schools. While his name is "withheld" by the Sentinel the viciousness of the intent is clear. The teacher says that passively accepting Christianity in the schools is like Nazism in pre-war Germany. How can Christians accept Jews as a friendly religious group when they take such extremist anti-Christian stands?

Two Anti-Christian Letters

The first letter is from "The Jewish Post" of Sept., 26, 1980 stating that a Jew should never use the expression "fingers crossed" because it is some sort of secret Christian symbol. This is as archaic as the belief of Hassidic Orthodox Jews that it is bad luck not to spit on the doorstep of any Christian church they happen to walk in front of. In New York this is filthy scene is quite commong.

Don't Give To Christian Charities

Broward Jewish Journal of July 23, 1981 carries a letter from a Jewish reader named Sam Hoffman. He objects to receiving letters from any charity which uses the word "Christian." Especially singled out is the very worthy "Christian Appalachian fund." Jewish groups are continually sending out appeals for money to Christians, including United Jewish Appeal, Israeli Bonds, Jewish Hospital Funds, etc. They want you to give money to their so-called charities but don't ask them to aid a Christian charity — THAT IS AN ACT OF ANTI-SEMITISM!

Christians must beware of the Rev. Jerry Falwell types who have been bought out by Israel's Begin government by huge contributions to his so-called "religious" organization. This is the main reason Falwell has given his 100% "devotion" to Prime Minister Begin rather than to Jesus Christ!

the fight against anti-semitism

It is generally accepted that the body of public sympathy acquired and accumulated through the tragic events of the European Hitler-made Holocaust — this reservoir of positive feeling — has been severely diminished. The world seems to be reverting to the "normalcy" that existed prior to 1939 when anti-semitism had not yet acquired the stigma which mass murder placed upon it "after Auschwitz."

The bigots have come out from under the rocks where they had lain dormant since 1945. The events of the summer of 1982 — the war in Lebanon — has given them a particularly strong boost and without hesitation our enemies now indulge in open or veiled anti-semitism under the cloak of anti-Israel critique or the vilification of Zionist or Israeli leaders.

Thirty-eight years after Hitler's defeat, the "no Holocaust" school of propaganda is having considerable success, infiltrating the world of academe as well as the media. In an interview in Esquire actor Robert Mitchum, who earned over a million dollars for his role in a television series based on Herman Wouk's Winds of War, revealed a cynical and callous skepticism about the Holocaust that stands in stark contrast to honest images the series portrayed.

The increased desensitization was made primarily clear here in Canada when an Ottawa postal board of review, summarizing the hearing of a propagandist whose stock in trade is denying the Holocaust, expressed itself in these words: "The board believes that what is before it is a much larger problem of struggle between two peoples, i.e. the Germans and the Jews . . ." A shocking put-down of the events of 1939-1945 as merely a quarrel between Germans and Jews and not really, therefore, the business or concern of anyone else, least of all the business of a judicial body protecting the integrity and decency of Canada's mail service!

The board's recommendation also impugned the integrity of an expert witness since he was paid by the complainant, and it came to the unsupportable conclusion that the propaganda only reached a "restricted" audience as it was sent to a "mailing list." (The "list" included every newspaper editor, every radio and TV station, every MP, MPP, and MLA in Canada, and every school board and library in the country!)

It is becoming increasingly difficult to impress upon the Canadian leadership that such matters are not merely the private concern of certain ethnic and religious grouping but are the pressing common concern of Canadians of every condition and rank.

To what degree can we look to the law for our remedies? Some 13 years ago, in 1970, Criminal Code amendments against racial and religious hate dissemination were made part of Canadian law. We had no illusions that these amendments were going to eliminate the evil of race hatred any more than the anti-discrimination laws of the 1950s did away with bias in jobs or housing. We hoped that the anti-hate legislation would speak symbolically, and reflect public policy in a way which would inhibit the hate peddlers.

Canadian law better than U.S.

To a limited extent the law has lived up to its promise. The most rabid, the most extreme forms of Jew-baiting in print, have almost disappeared. By comparison, a look at some of the material circulating in the U.S. will picture the more virulent forms of propaganda circulating in a country with no deterrent law. The Canadian hatemongers do compose their material — but with one eye on the letter of the law.

The weaknesses of the law is best shown in the attorney-general of Ontario's reluctance to lay a charge against a Toronto preacher because of the clause in the law which exempts an individual from persecution:

". . . if, in good faith, he expressed or attempted to establish by argument an opinion upon a religious subject" . . . or "if on reasonable grounds he believed the statements to be true."

The preacher preached a viciously anti-Jewish taped sermon and then had the audacity to sell it in his congregation's gift shop. In the sermon he dared his parishioners to give the tape to their "Jew boss" if they worked for a Jew.

Although it contained probably the worst defamation and incitement to be heard recently in Canada, no action was taken. (Under the provisions of the law action can only be taken if agreed to by the attorney-general.) This was not because the AG was partial to the message. Far from it. Such is the weakness of the law that he feared that if the case were lost it would expand the permissible limit for hatemongers which would then constitute a greater danger.

Clearly then, one of our priorities is the amendment of anti-hate legislation to give the law more than symbolic power.

We have our work cut out for us.

Canadian Jewish Leader Wants U.S. To Abolish Free Press

Rabbi Jordan Pearlson writes of the progress Jews have made in Canada by having the government censor all criticism of Jews, Zionism and Israel. Note that he states weakness in the U.S. laws allows Patriots to publish freely expressed opinions on the Jews and their activities. How horrible! Rabbi Pearlson says this should be banned "to protect the integrity and decency of the mail."

What about literature mailed out by the Jewish Defense League threatening those who oppose Israel's goals? Of course this is "love propaganda" and not "hate mail."

Canadian Patriot Victorious

Holocaust Fighter Wins Landmark Case

Canadian Patriot Ernst Zundel has published and distributed world-wide material proving beyond a shadow of a doubt that there was no holocaust of any six million Jews in Germany. Unfortunately Canada does not have a Bill of Rights guaranteeing freedom of speech, press and assembly. Thus they enacted a little used but dangerous law which allows the Canadian Post office the power to lift a citizens mailing rights. Under Jew pressure they banned Mr. Zundel's right to receive or mail letters — he could not even receive or pay bills!

Nearly a year later, after extensive hearings, a postal review board ruled that Mr. Ernst Zundel had "committed no crime and that his mail had been stopped merely on the suspicion it constituted hate literature." Now he is back exposing the holocaust hoax again. We will publish his material soon. Adding more proof to the charge that Jews do not believe in freedom or democracy was the reaction by Ben Kayfetz, director of the Canadian Jewish Congress who called the review board's decision "appalling."

Post office wrong

(Below from "The Toronto Sun," April 17, 1983)

If a country's laws are judged by how they treat its least popular citizens, there's a lesson in Ernst Zundel's battle with the Canada Post Act.

Zundel, 43, describes himself as "the man Canada loves to hate."

He's long been the favorite target of the Jewish Defence League because of his claim the Nazi holocaust of World War II has been greatly exaggerated.

Zionists caused Zundel to lose his mailing rights for a year even though he'd been charged with no crime and his only previous conviction was a driving offence.

A postal review board has cleared Zundel of any legal infraction. But he still can't get an official explanation for the ban or why it was lifted.

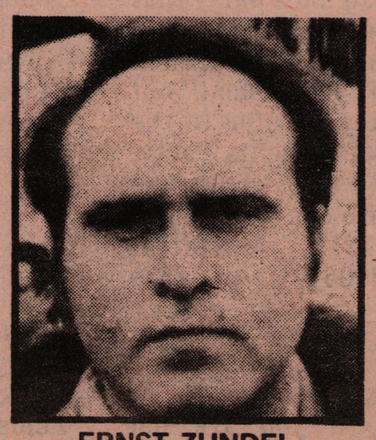
And Andre Ouellet, minister responsible for Canada Post, refuses to return Zundel's massive amount of hearing exhibits — literature and books.

A lawyer appointed by the Canadian Civil Liberties Association to represent Zundel blames it on "a monstrous piece of legislation."

A postal review board has cleared Zundel of any legal infraction. But he still can't get an official explanation for the ban or why it was lifted.

And Andre Ouellet, minister responsible for Canada Post, refuses to return Zundel's massive amount of hearing exhibits — literature and books.

"It's not something the average person knows about at all," said lawyer Lynn McCaw, now living in Vancouver.



ERNST ZUNDEL
Cost him a fortune

Wiesenthal, who has gained a reputation as a respected Nazi hunter, told Kaplan in a 1980 letter that Zundel's Samisdat Publishers Ltd. of Carlton St. was disseminating "anti-Jewish propaganda, race-hatred and neo-Nazism" through the Canadian mails.

The Canadian Jewish Congress joined the fight and Zundel's mailing privileges were halted in November 1981, with no hearing.

"They'd feel horrified if they realized what could be done to them."

McCaw reluctantly took on Zundel's case even though she disagrees with his politics.

"I can't say I enjoyed the case because I didn't. But I felt it had to be done," said McCaw. "And it really opened my eyes."

Zundel is a German native who has lived in Canada 24 years. He lost his mailing privileges after Vienna-based Simon Wiesenthal and the Canadian Holocaust Remembrance Association complained to Solicitor-General Robert Kaplan.

But after an unprecedented five-day inquiry, the postal review board led by Robert Chevrier decided last November Zundel's mail should be restored.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police evidence against Zundel had included "crackpot" mail material that was not his. Zundel spent thousands of dollars to get his mail rights back.

But McCaw said Lawrence Greenspon, lawyer for the holocaust association, and Richard King, representing Canada Post, were "just terrible. It was very scary. They were associating me with being a Nazi sympathizer.

Greenspon said he personally believes Zundel's material was "tantamount with hate propaganda"

But the postal board's findings were accepted by Ouellet, who is entitled by law to ignore the board.

National States Rights Party Activity Increases

National States Rights Party Activity Report

The Presidential elections are only one year away and growing numbers of Patriots are promoting the nation's largest third party in the probability that there will be no candidate we can in good conscience support. The following events attest to this activity.

Tampa, Fla. Bay Area Chapter of the NSRP met and elected new officers who are young and vigorous patriots. Dr. Fields had a private meeting with these patriots and wishes that all local supporters who want to attend regular NSRP meetings write them immediately. Robert Johnson is the new Chapter Leader and Rick Hyland, Area Organizer. Write them today: P. O. Box 7648, St. Petersburg, Fla. 33734.

Richmond, Va. NSRP activist Edward Breeden testified against a bill to make pro-communist Martin Luther King's birthday a state holiday. Mr. Breeden revealed King's subversive background and stated King's main goal was "to bring about the integration of Whites and blacks. If that is continued, you will not see pure White or pure black people in the years to come. This is a malicious scheme to bring about race-mixing and thereby dilute the power of the White race." The King bill was defeated in the House Committee by a 13-7 vote. Patriots — take heed of Ed Breeden's decision to "go public" with our views as the best way to awaken people and win new converts to our Party.

Alaska NSRP supporter Wolfgang Falke received publicity in the "Daily News-Miner" of Fairbanks, Alaska on April 5. He spoke before an adult evening course on the U. S. Constitution at the Ryan School. A liberal teacher, Pat Clark, objected to the literature distributed, calling it "anti-Semitic." Mr. Falke, who recently received a large vote in his race for legislature, responded: "The literature says that communism is Jewish and that Jews have destroyed literature, art and science and the best solution for the Jew problem is to send them to Madagascar."

Falke said he sought to represent different views to the class and he does not preach hatred of any group but "supports" restoration of the U. S. Constitution which has been undermined by certain groups. Falke said some of the material proved that Jews control TV, the movie industry, certain industries and the courts. One book said, "The biggest battle in history going on today is the Jews versus national patriotism."

Defending Mr. Falke's right to free speech was school board member H. O. Williams who responded, "We cannot refuse rentals to anyone because of their philosophical leanings. As long as what they're doing is not against the law we have to give them access to public buildings." (NOTE: Thunderbolt circulation has been growing rapidly in America's frontier state of Alaska.)

New Jersey NSRP supporters placed a classified ad in that state's Polish newspaper, "The Post Eagle," which read, "Jewish Bolshevism killed over 50 million Christians. Read, 'Behind Communism,' with over 100 photographs, $2 postpaid from: The Thunderbolt, P. O. Box 1211, Marietta, Ga. 30061." You might be surprised to learn local neighborhood newspapers will accept patriotic ads. Write your own and see it will probably be accepted. Your Editor's suggestion for an effective ad which has brought results: "America's Hottest Newspaper — against Zionism and for White people's rights, send $1 for two different editions. Write: "The Thunderbolt, P. O. Box 1211, Marietta, Ga. 30061."

Dr. E. R. Fields addresses NSRP meeting in Atlanta.

We Need a Third Party

Ft. Pierce — Port Lucie, Fla. newspaper, "The News Tribune," carried the following lead "Letter to the Editor" from Jean Froissart of Port St. Lucie, Fla. The brilliant headline, "Found A Party That Speaks Up," is reproduced on this page. This proves you can write "Letters to the Editor" to your local newspaper giving our headquarters address that will be printed. We received quite a few letters for free information about the NSRP and this resulted in a number of new converts to our cause. Why not write a similar letter to your local newspaper and spread the news about the White Patriots' "Third Party." Many will be printed and this amounts to free advertising for the NSRP.

Membership Application

I am a loyal White American who believes in Christianity and the preservation of the White Race. I further believe that the White majority is entitled to protection from job discrimination; the guarantee of freedom, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and all other rights as handed down by our founding fathers as part of our traditions and heritage.

I am opposed to communistic Zionism and all other anti-Christ ideology. I believe that the invasion of America by illegal immigrants must be stopped. I feel obligated to save our national birthright for generations of Americans yet to be born. I believe I can best achieve these goals by becoming a member of "America's Largest Third Party."

I understand the NSRP is a Political Party, independent of any other organization, secret order, political, parent, ecclesiastical body, or any other group.

The News Tribune
a party that speaks up

EDITOR:

I was once a Democrat, once a Republican, once an Independent. I changed my voter registration each time I realized that our "leaders" care more about special interest groups and the welfare of foreign countries than the interests of Americans.

The sooner we wake up and cast off this two-party swindle, the better off we will be. What law says only two parties? Why isn't something done to make it easier for more parties to form?

In my years of searching I have finally found a party that speaks up for Americans, the middle class and working men and women. Its a small but growing party. I refer to the National States Rights Party, and anybody who would like to know more can write to P. O. Box 1211, Marietta, Georgia 30061, for free literature.

However, if you are not conservative and pro-American you won't find a home in the National States Rights Party.

I remain sincerely yours for States Rights and a Free Country.

Keep The Boycott Going

The Thunderbolt has been flooded with letters from people who say they have sworn off Burger King, Coca-Cola, Seven-Up and Kentucky Fried Chicken. One Burger King officer wrote they were worried about the boycott because of the fierce competition from McDonald's, Wendy's, Krystal and Hardees hamburgers.

On this page we reproduce the half-billion dollar sell-out by Burger King to Jesse Jackson's PUSH organization as documented and celebrated in "Jet Magazine." The time has come to hit them in the pocketbook where it hurts. Do not eat any of these products. Spread the truth about their discriminating against White suppliers and White workers. Blacks make up nearly 15% of the population but Burger King will make them "over-represented" in their company by granting blacks 21% of all jobs by hiring 20,000 negroes. This means they will either fire many Whites or discriminate against Whites in future hiring. Boycott these anti-White companies!

Burger King Pres. Jeffrey Campbell signs company over to Jesse Jackson.

BUSINESS

$500 Million Trade Agreement Signed By PUSH And Burger King

With the intent of substantially increasing business and employment opportunities for Blacks, Burger King Corporation and Operation PUSH signed a joint trade covenant that will have the economic impact of $500 million, creating 20,000 new jobs and $140 million in salaries.

The signing ceremony was held in Chicago at the headquarters of PUSH a day after the agreement was first announced at Burger King University, part of Burger King's Corporation's headquarters complex in Miami, Fla.

Calling it "a plus-plus deal" in which everybody is a winner, Rev. Jesse Jackson, president of PUSH, told a group of Black business leaders that the agreement is effective immediately and runs through mid-1987 with provisions for extensions.
